FILM ACCESSORY NEWS

CINEVENT 2018 will be held May 24-27, 2018. CINEVENT is a gathering of fans of silent and early sound films, and of collectors of motion pictures and related items.

Started 50 years ago, it has grown into a Memorial Day tradition for hundreds of attendees who gather together each year. Movie screenings are available nearly continually every day of the convention from morning through evening (with a few hours off to sleep!).

Dealers fill over a hundred tables full of film, video, sound recordings, posters, stills, lobby cards, books, autographs...everything imaginable associated with film. On Saturday, The Hollywood Poster Auction will be held on Saturday at 1:00 pm on the Third floor (just up the steps from the Cinevent Convention floor). DETAILS PAGE 3.

EWBANK'S ENTERTAINMENT & VINTAGE POSTER AUCTIONS MAY 31 & JUNE 1

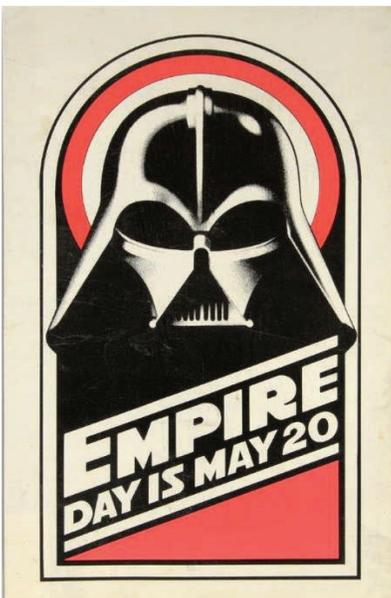

Ewbank's, Surrey's leading auction house, is preparing to transport film fans to galaxies and planets far, far away as it puts memorabilia from Star Wars and Doctor Who on sale.

A full-size Tardis, standing 217cm tall, is going on sale at the Entertainment and Memorabilia auction on May 31, with a guide price of between £8,000 and £12,000. It is one of two which were constructed at Shepperton Studios in 1965, for the film, Dr Who and The Daleks.

One was destroyed in production of the movie, and the one going on sale at Ewbank's was used at the premiere of the film for the cast to emerge from onto stage. It has also been signed on the inside by Jennie Linden, who played Barbara, one of Doctor Who's granddaughters in Dr Who and The Daleks.

This Tardis was also used on the second film in 1966, Dr. Who Invasion of Earth 2150 AD.

It was removed from Shepperton and later re-built by the BBC props department for use at Children in Need 2009 at the Leicester Space Centre. It was sold on eBay as part of a charity auction in 2011 and has been in storage ever since.

For Star Wars fans, always one of the most popular franchises for buyers at Ewbank's entertainment sales, there are opportunities to snap up a rare poster and an Ewok head.

The original 'Empire Day is May 20' poster, advertising the London premiere of the 1980 film, The Empire Strikes Back, has been valued at between £1,000 and £2,000. It is paper, on period cardboard, to provide support for display, and measures 13.5 x 22 inches.

An Ewok head, assembled from original production items from Star Wars' Return Of The Jedi, carries an estimate of between £6,000 and £9,000.

The items were obtained from Stuart Freeborn, the original creator of the Ewoks. The head consists of an original latex Ewok face, original eyes, original internal components and original latex ears. The set of teeth were cast from original Ewok teeth and there is a Velcro closure on the back.

The head has been assembled to match the style of the originals using original reference material, paints formulated for foam latex work and covered with original Ewok fur from Freeborn.

This piece has been assembled by Tom Spina very sympathetically to the work of Freeborn and is as close to an original screen used Ewok mask as possible, and comes displayed on a custom-made stand.

Alongside these intriguing pieces of movie memorabilia, is a rare pair of Nike Air Mag trainers, the type worn by Michael J Fox in the iconic film, Back To The Future. The limited edition and highly sought-after shoes, UK size 8, have a pre-sale guide price of between £18,000 and £28,000

The multi-coloured, self-lacing, custom-made shoes are pair number 20 of 89, created by Nike in 2016, in exactly same way as the first ones which were commercially released, in limited quantities, in 2011.

Ewbank's is accepting consignments for the Entertainment and Memorabilia sale until May 24. The team is also accepting entries for the next Fine Sale in June, as well as for forthcoming Toys and Models auctions in May.

The team at Ewbank's is available for free sale valuations from 9am to 5pm, Monday to Friday at the Burnt Common Auction Rooms, just off the A3 near Guildford.

eMoviePoster.com's Spring Major Auction had lots of record setting results. Not only that, but our weekly auctions have been getting positively astounding results on many items, including lots that have recently been auctioned at other auction houses, for much lower prices.

More and more we are auctioning non-movie items (mostly posters, but other types as well).

Our recent auction of 120 mostly TV-related board games saw most of them sell for multiples of the prices they sell for in the "game" collecting hobby.

In 2017 we set our all-time record yearly sales with $5.6 million of actual poster sales. In the first four months of 2018 our sales are $2 million, a far better pace than 2017.

Major News: Announcing the Saul Bass Archive @ Film/Art Gallery!

Dear Friends and Movie Lovers-

Today we celebrate the 98th anniversary of the birth of Saul Bass - one of the greatest, most influential and prolific artists of the past 100 years. He's certainly our favorite graphic designer, and we've always been avid collectors of his brilliantly-designed, iconic film posters.

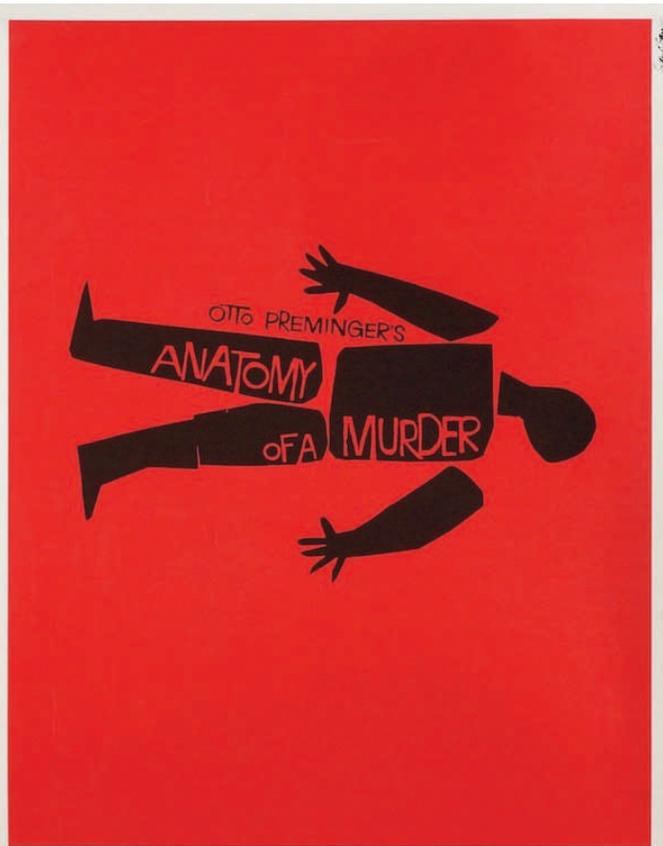

And so it is with enormous pride and a great deal of excitement that we announce our exclusive partnership with the Saul Bass Estate. The Saul Bass Archive @ Film/Art Gallery launches today with a wonderful group of silkscreen film posters: EXODUS, NINE HOURS TO RAMA, ADVISE AND CONSENT, THE MAGNIFICENT SEVEN, THE FIXER, BUNNY LAKE IS MISSING, THE CARDINAL, GRAND PRIX, SECONDS and ANATOMY OF A MURDER. These were commissioned by Bass and printed at the Art Krebs Studio in Los Angeles, for Bass' personal use: as gifts, donations to such institutions as The Museum of Modern Art, and for display at exhibitions throughout the world. They were printed in very small editions, and not meant for commercial distribution. This collaboration marks the first time that these silkscreens from his personal collection are being made available directly to the public.

And this is just the beginning! We've spent the past two years working with the Bass family, cataloging and photographing hundreds of items - many of which have never been seen by the public. The collection has been intact and in storage since Bass' death in 1997, and includes film posters (silkscreen and serigraph), film festival posters, publications, corporate logo designs and much more. In the upcoming months and years we will continue to regularly introduce new items and content to the site, so please make sure to visit regularly for the latest updates.

JUNE 13 / NEW YORK AND ONLINE

Highlights of this fantastic auction include the following:

Gilda

Columbia, 1946. U.S. one sheet poster, style B, framed. Rita Hayworth stars with Glenn Ford in this Charles Vidor-directed film noir which features Hayworth singing the now-famous "Put the Blame on Mame" while dancing a mock striptease. Forever identified with the role, Hayworth once quipped, "Every man I've known has fallen in love with Gilda and wakened with me." US$ 20,000 - 30,000

Crossroads - MGM, 1942. U.S. one sheet poster, style D, framed. Gorgeous Hedy Lamarr attempts to help husband and diplomat William Powell recover from a bout of amnesia in this drama directed by Jack Conway. Claire Trevor and Basil Rathbone play the second leads. US$ 4,000 - 6,000.

Pride of the Yankees - Samuel Goldwyn Company, R1949. Two U.S. one sheet re-release posters, folded. Gary Cooper plays baseball legend Lou Gehrig in this sentimental film that became one of the highlights of Cooper's career. Interestingly, the re-release poster is more sought after than the original because of the appearance of Babe Ruth in this version. Ruth had a small but impactful part in the film. US$ 4,000 - 6,000 .

To Have and Have Not - Warner Bros., 1944. U.S. one sheet poster, linen-backed. When Humphrey Bogart first met Lauren Bacall and was told they'd be co-starring in this film, he said, "We'll have a lot of fun together." Indeed they did, with 3 more films together, an 11-year marriage, and 2 children. Directed by Howard Hawks, the film was based on a novel by Ernest Hemingway. US$ 1,800 - 2,200

Sunset Boulevard - Paramount Pictures, 1957. Polish one sheet poster, A1, framed. Art by Waldemar Swierzy. This poster art brilliantly captures Gloria Swanson as "Norma Desmond" when she makes her way dramatically down the stairs of her Hollywood mansion, still thinking she is the star of a Cecil B. DeMille picture. Directed by Billy Wilder and co-starring William Holden and Erich von Stroheim, Sunset Boulevard still stands as one of Hollywood's greatest—and most accurate—productions about itself. US $ 4,000 - 6,000.

Many items to be sold without reserve.

THE 2018 SPRING POSTER

COLLECTION IS HERE

You can go straight to the BLOG here

The Gallery's legendary reverence to silver screen feminine beauties does not need to be rewritten in words but certainly and endlessly reiterated in pictures.

Between 1962 and 1967, some of the most gorgeous women on earth appeared in several multi part comedies, originating mainly for France and Italy but also from the US.

Aside from Audrey Hepburn - the most elegant woman who ever graced celluloid - whom (with one exception in The Children's Hour) never shared the screen with many other lead actresses, the list of female stars appearing in those comedies is simply astonishing and represents a kaleidoscope of worldwide beauty, hailing from so many countries as listed below:

- * Austria with Romy Schneider and Marisa Mell
- * Belgium with Catherine Spaak
- * Denmark with Anna Karina
- * France with Claudine Auger, Brigitte Bardot, Capucine, Annie Girardot, Marie Laforet, Michele Mercier, Jeanne Moreau, Simone Signoret and the 4 D's (Mireille Darc, Catherine Deneuve, Françoise Dorléac, Marie Dubois)
- * Germany with Elke Sommer
- * Italy with Claudia Cardinale, Virna Lisi, Gina Lollobrigida, Sophia Loren, Elsa Martinelli and Monica Vitti
- * Japan with Mie Hama
- * Sweden with Anita Ekberg
- * Switzerland with Ursula Andress
- * The USA with Jane Fonda, Jean Seberg and Raquel Welch

If you add the fact that those movies were directed by some of the best Directors of the time (Fellini, Godard, Visconti, De Sica, Vadim, Chabrol, De Broca, Molinaro, Polanski, olognini, Monicelli...) then you have a fabulous series of films to watch and enjoy.

THIS WEEK'S BLOG (click here) gathers 10 of those female-led comedies featuring many rare vintage posters and complete fotobusta sets from Argentina, Belgium, France, Denmark, Germany, Italy, Japan, the ex-Yugoslavia and the US.

Here's one of them: the sublime and impossible to find Japanese poster for Boccaccio 70 starring Loren, Ekberg and Schneider. The poster is already linen-backed.

WHAT'S NEW THIS WEEK?

NEW ITEMS: The 2018 SPRING COLLECTION, strong with 810 posters, is available in the NEW PRODUCTS section. Here are 20 more beauties culled from it solely focusing on male stars (quite normal as the Blog celebrates femininity).

Clint Eastwood looking both fierce and cool on the colorful Italian fotobusta poster for the 1969 rerelease of The Good The Bad And The Ugly.

We celebrated Stevie Wonder's birthday earlier this week so here he is on the cover of the 1974 Tour program.

Lee Marvin is not a man you'd want to cross especially in Point Blank. Rare double-sided Japanese press poster.

The King of Cool, Steve McQueen, with his sidekick, Dustin Hoffmann, gave fantastic performance in the prison escape drama, Papillon. Here are the 4 different Italian 1 Foglio posters printed for the original movie release.

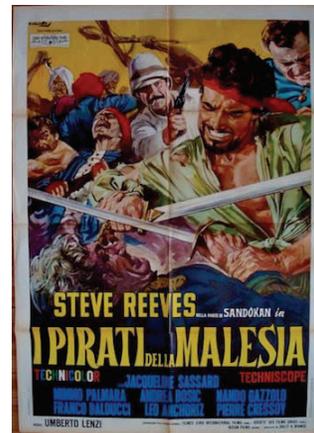

Oscar winner Javier Bardem more menacing than ever in No Country For Old Men and even more on this brand new limited edition variant print by Marko Manev.

John Wayne in the greatest movie ever made, The Searchers, and its very rare sublime Japanese poster. Already linen-backed.

Steve Reeves, Mr. Muscle himself, proving he was more than Hercules, in The Pirates Of Malaysia and its superb Italian poster painted by Averardo Ciriello.

Bruce Lee, striking and chopping, on the very rare style B French Grande poster for Fist Of Fury: The Chinese Connection.

I believe Boxing should be left to men alone. Bloody sport yet colorful with this large sized poster from the 1972 Munich Olympics Games, part of the series designed by Otl Aicher.

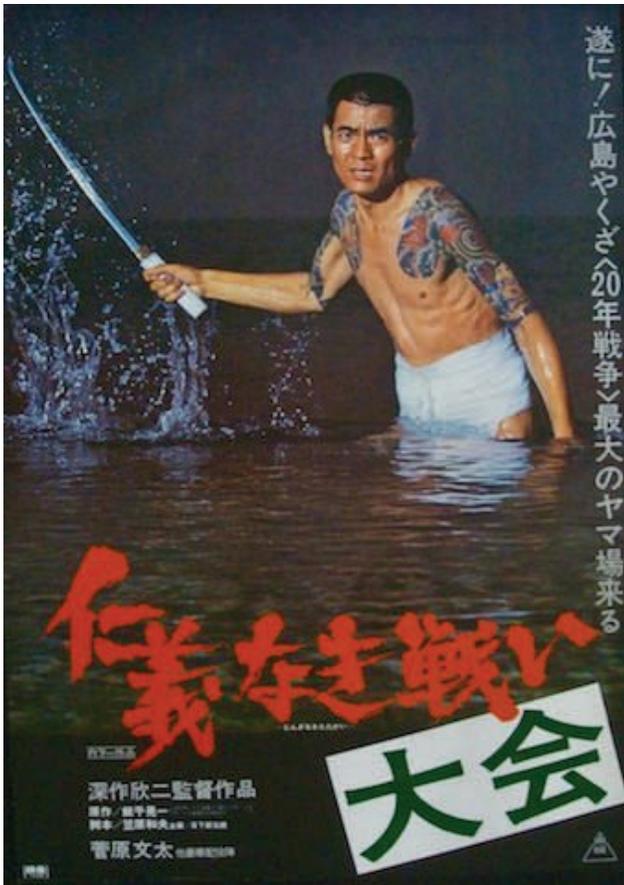

Men can also use their natural elegance to reach their goals...Superb italian fotobusta poster for Bedtime Story, the 1964 comedy co-starring Marlon Brando and David Niven.

Feline, charismatic, energetic...Some of the many adjectives given to Johnny Hallyday, French legendary singer and national icon, here on the ultra rare large 2 panel japanese poster for the 1972 documentary, Johnny Hallyday: J'ai tout donne.

Iconic as one hero can be...Captain America on the 1970 Marvelmania poster painted by Jim Steranko.

Dear Friends & Movie Lovers

Hello from Hollywood, where we are gearing up for the Cinespia at Hollywood Forever Cemetery Screening season, which kicks off in less than two weeks. Opening night is sold out but you can still get tickets for such upcoming films as VERTIGO, CASABLANCA, SPIRITED AWAY, ALIEN and more at cinespia.org.

Click on the poster or go here to see our posters for RAIDERS OF THE LOST ARK, which will be screening on June 23rd.

We're also excited about the Broadway revival of Mart Crowley's ground-breaking play THE BOYS IN THE BAND, which has just begun previews at the Booth Theatre.

The 1970 film version was nicely directed (by William Friedkin - a year before his Oscar-winning FRENCH CONNECTION) and features fine performances by the ensemble, who had originated their roles in the first NYC stage production.

It's interesting to see how some of the publicity for the current production has used imagery associated with the original play and film. We've got a number of very cool posters for the film; to see them all, just click the image or go here.

And now for the posters: 100 new acquisitions for May, including:

A super-rare Japanese poster for BARBARELLA & the great Japanese 2 Panel for LE MANS

Original release French posters for Alain Delon in Jean-Pierre Melville's LE SAMOURAI & Bardot in Godard's LE MEPRIS/CONTEMPT

U.S. 1 Sheets for PUTNEY SWOPE, EXODUS, A HARD DAY'S NIGHT, IMITATION OF LIFE & STAR WARS (Style C)

Japanese IN THE MOOD FOR LOVE, THE GODFATHER, TAXI DRIVER & SOLARIS

Plus: Raquel!, a great British 1 Sheet for Ken Russell's FRENCH DRESSING, Half Sheets for CLOCKWORK ORANGE (X), VANISHING POINT and WOODSTOCK, a rare poster for Kenneth Anger's PLEASURE DOME, British Quads for JULES & JIM and BABY JANE, and much more here:

Dracula, Frankenstein, The Mummy, The Invisible Man, and The Wolf Man are probably the most recognizable monsters in cinema history. These monsters are the icons of Horror. In 2007 we wrote CHILDREN OF THE NIGHT to present the first comprehensive collection of posters for these titles and many other horror titles of the 1920s, 1930s, and 1940s.

WHAT MUSIC THEY MAKE now completes the process, filling in over 1500 additional horror poster images from that time period. Most are completely new images on over 300 pages. While starting out as a supplement to CHILDREN OF THE NIGHT, it actually turned into a larger project than the original book. More great images and more pages than Children. This book contains posters and images not seen in decades. It contains a heavy emphasis on complete lobby card sets, as well as wonderful posters not pictured in Children. Whether you're an avid poster collector or simply someone who enjoys the classic horror films, you should find pleasure reading this book. We are pleased to finish the process initiated by Children and now completed with WHAT MUSIC THEY MAKE. Please enjoy viewing the wonderful images of WHAT MUSIC THEY MAKE.
