HOLLYWOOD POSTER AUCTION 27 MAY 25th

On Saturday, May 25th 2019 The Hollywood Poster Auction will hold its 27th Annual internet and live auction at Cinevent, held May 23-26 at the Renaissance Hotel in Columbus, Ohio. There will be more than 800 lots of movie stills, lobby cards, posters and other movie ephemera for sale starting at 1:00 P.M. EST at a rate of approximately 100 lots per hour, with Auctioneer Stuart Holman. Reserves will be published and established buyers and all consignors will receive a 12 page full color flyer highlighting our premiere lots the beginning of May. If you're not on our mailing list or have moved, please send us your information.

This year's Hollywood Poster Auction will feature an incredible selection of classic horror and science fiction stills from the archives of the Everett Collection, the New Jersey based photo leasing company co-owned by Morris Everett, Jr. Some of this year's auction highlights include:

Thousands of original vintage stills featuring horror icons such as Lon Chaney Sr., Boris Karloff, Bela Lugosi, Lon Chaney Jr., Vincent Price, Basil Rathbone, Peter Lorre, John Carradine, Glenn Strange and many more, a great selection of Three Stooges stills, collections of William Powell stills, Kay Francis stills, a beautiful linenbacked "Dark Victory" three sheet featuring a stunning portrait of Bette Davis, many quality lobby cards, plus a nice collection of linenbacked silent and western one sheets. As always, we try to have something for everybody, from the serious collector to the casual fan, and encourage people to visit our store Monday-Friday 9-5 by appointment.

Finally, a few words about Cinevent in Columbus. This May 23-26th convention is the last of the "old time" conventions. Collectors often arrive days in advance to deal films and posters from their hotel rooms. The buy-sell-trade action continues strongly though the entire weekend. This is the one convention where the east coast, west coast and Canada meet every year. Old movies are shown around the clock and 800-1000 people attend. If you've never attend I urge you to come. For many collectors this is the only convention they attend.

See you at Cinevent!

LADIES THEY TALK ABOUT (1933)

Original Insert Poster

Original Warner Brothers Insert Poster (14x36") for the Howard Bretherton and William Keighley crime drama, LADIES THEY TALK ABOUT (1933) starring Barbara Stanwyck, Preston Foster, and Lyle Talbot.

The "Ladies" are the hard-boiled dames locked up in San Quentin Penitentiary. Stanwyck is memorable as the female member of a small-time gang of crooks, who confesses to boyfriend Foster and winds up in prison. This pre-code tribal study of women in prison has some pretty risqué lines and situations.

This original insert poster is paper-backed and in fine condition. MovieArt Austin guarantees that this great pre-code poster is a vintage, authentic insert for this film.

MovieArt Austin will sell no reproductions.

NIGHTMARE ALLEY: by Brandy Isadora

Nightmare Alley: Movie Review by Brandy Isadora

Nightmare Alley:

Movie Review by Brandy Isadora

Most people from my generation (early millennial) or later wouldn't know who Tyrone Power is, much less be familiar with his work. Until his untimely death at the age of forty-four from a heart attack, Power was one of Hollywood's greatest and most successful actors. He was both handsome and talented, and, once he was given a chance to play the leading role in the 1936 movie, Lloyds of London, Power won the hearts of American audiences and Hollywood. However, while Power was a respected actor, the studio was reluctant to let him take the role of Stan Carlisle in Nightmare Alley. Despite playing a vast array of roles, Power's characters had always allowed him to remain handsome and distinguished. Nightmare Alley required Power to play a very dark and vulnerable person. The studio worried that audiences wouldn't want to see this side of the famous actor. Power didn't give up and eventually he went on to star in the 1947 film noir alongside Joan Blondell, Coleen Gray, and Helen Walker.

Nightmare Alley is a modern day version of the story of Icarus, the boy who flew too close to the sun and fell to his death. Stan Carlisle (Power) works as a carnie (carnival worker), but he has big dreams of becoming rich and famous. He is intrigued by the mentalist Zeena (Blondell), who has perfected a code with her husband, Pete, so that it appears that she can read anyone's mind. Zeena's act mesmerizes everyone, including Stan. Despite the fact that Zeena is a powerful mentalist, her success was dampened over time by Pete's alcohol abuse. Zeena and Pete had, at one time, an incredible career with their psychic act. Yet, jealousy and insecurity drove Pete to drink and he finally had to act as the carnival's geek, a man hired to play the freak or monster.

Stan sees himself as being better than these carnival people. Ultimately when Pete is forced to leave Zeena's act, Stan steps in as Zeena's partner. Once Stan masters Zeena's code, he steals it and decides to leave the carnival and strike out on his own with the beautiful, but innocent Molly (Gray) as his wife and performing partner.

For a period of time, with their beauty and talent, Stan and Molly enjoy incredible success, but it's never enough for Stan. While he basks in the attention of women who believe him to be truly psychic, Stan craves more power and money. He then decides that he will tell people that he has the ability to commune with the dead. Stan thinks he has the perfect plan, but, when the performance unravels, both he and Molly stand to lose everything that they have built together. Stan tries to remedy the situation, but now everyone knows that he's a fake. Stan's career and life appear to spiral into complete ruin.

Nightmare Alley, was produced by George Jessel and Darryl F. Zanuck and directed by Edmund Goulding. It is based on William Lindsay Greshman's novel of that same name. When 20th Century Fox released the movie in 1947, critics gave it mixed reviews. Today the film is considered to be one of the greatest treasures from the film noir period, but back then audiences were not ready for the heaviness of the subject matter. Nightmare Alley is a powerful and unforgettable film because it portrays some of the darkest aspects of humanity.

The talented cast brings the story to life. Joan Blondell is both mesmerizing and vulnerable as Zeena. No matter what character she plays, she is always relatable to the viewers. Tyrone Power very easily established the fact that he was an actor who could take on any role. At the beginning of the film, he is handsome, clever, and confident, but, by the end of the film, he completely transforms until he is barely recognizable.

Like Icarus, whose father told him not to fly too close to the sun because his wings were made of wax, Stan was given many warnings to restrain his ambitions and greed. He saw the danger all around him, but like Icarus, Stan would follow his personally chosen path and would have to live with the consequences. Morality tale, horror story, Nightmare Alley was ahead of its time, but in the end, the story is timeless.

You should also notice a lot of changes as we adjust to the database format – especially in the international films, we are in the process of expanding the title to include country of origin, original title and original year of release (in parenthesis by the title) to better identify international films – and adding more aka's.

Where else can you find production code information on such classics as: Night of a Thousand Cats!! Or Moonlighting Mistress!!

This Houdini one-sheet is in our June Major Auction

The Master Mystery is a 1919 serial that is of great historic importance. It is legendary magician's Harry Houdini's very first movie, and it is also the very first movie to feature a robot! Very few posters from this serial have ever been offered, especially ones that show the robot! The one-sheet pictured here is featured in our June Major Auction that begins June 2nd. In 2013 we auctioned a one-sheet from a different Houdini movie, The Grim Game, which sold for $67,166.00, the highest price paid for any kind of Houdini poster. Return to our site on June 2nd when bidding on this great poster begins (it closes on June 9th)!

ART THAT POPS!

THE NEW 2019 SPRING POSTER

COLLECTION IS HERE

You can go straight to the BLOG here

Dear posterophiles,

With the imminent release of the 33rd episode of the GODZILLA saga, Godzilla: King Of The Monsters, it is fitting to focus not only on the giant lizard itself but on the whole genre it epitomizes, i.e. the KAIJU eiga, i.e. the Kaiju movie genre.

In Japanese Kaiju literally describes a strange beast but more precisely has been used to coin the gigantic monster portrayed in those movies.

Among those strange beasts, you have a hierarchy with the daikaiju, the 'great' strange beasts: Godzilla, Rodan and Mothra.

Along those, you will find the fiercest of them all, the three headed dragon King Ghidorah as well as Dogora, Gamera and Daigoro. All those terrible creatures obviously originate from the atomic trauma that Japan suffered after WW2 and the impact it had on nature with radiation altering animals and humans in the most monstrous and horrific manners.

The rise of those Sci-Fi monsters reminded Japanese audiences of the terrible dangers of the Atomic age; a threat that is a key component of most of those movies' stories.

The most important person behind this genre is director Ishiro Honda who directed most of the original movies - starting with the first Godzilla in 1954 - as well as designing and visualizing the famous rubber suits and crushing cardboard sets and cities that have become mainstays of those movie as well as countless Japanese TV Sci-Fi series before the event of digital special effects.

The genre was an instant success in Japan and also in the US and Europe where those movies were often released with misleading title including King Kong and Frankenstein even though those two didn't appear in them!!!

THIS WEEK'S BLOG \(click here\) gathers fantastic posters from the Kaiju genre originating from France, Italy and of course Japan including the complete set of painted posters by Noriyoshi Ohrai.

Here's one those with the superb Ohrai painted poster for Godzilla vs Biollante.

WHAT'S NEW THIS WEEK?

* NEW ITEMS: The 2019 SPRING COLLECTION, strong of 355 posters is available in the NEW PRODUCTS section. Here is a random selection of 20 posters.

Doris Day just left us earlier this week at the age of 97. She embodied Hollywood's golden era with movie filled with light, romance and comedy as perfectly illustrated on the very rare Japanese poster for That Touch Of Mink.

Our last Blog devoted to Bruceploitation movies gathered quite a lot of interest so here's a great Swiss poster featuring Jim Kelly in Black Belt Jones, a movie at the crossroads of Bruceploitation and Blaxploitation.

One of the most striking posters in the famed Bill Graham Fillmore poster series is the one known as BG 43 designed by Wes Wilson for Otis Redding and The Grateful Dead 1966 shows in San Francisco.

Day-Glo colors enhance the British poster of the 1967 German sexual education documentary The Miracle Of Love, here retitled as Wonder Of Love.

An Illustration Gallery exclusive is the impossible to find Complete set of 5 original Italian fotobusta posters (with their original cover) for the first Italian release in 1964 of Goldfinger, the 3rd James Bond movie.

James Bond was not the only great British spy as Michael Caine portrayed the smooth spy Harry Palmer in three movies between 1965 and 1967. Here's the very rare Japanese poster for the second episode Funeral In Berlin.

We shouldn't of course forget Roger Moore who played in the great spy thriller Crossplot in 1969 just before he was cast to replace Sean Connery. Vintage US one sheet poster with incredible Art by Arnaldo Putzu.

Vivid red design for the large Swiss poster for a 1964 horse jumping / equestrian show. Design by Anring.

Italian movie poster painting at its best with Roldolfo Gasparri for the 1964 comedy, Topless War \(la guerra dei topless\).

Equally colorful painting excellence courtesy of Ray \(Raymond Elseviers\) for the Belgian release of Harper, the 1966 detective Thriller starring Paul Newman.

A brand new magnificent limited edition print by Blunt Graffix featuring David Bowie, printed on foil paper with incredible reflections.

More stunning design with the Czech movie poster for the first release of Serpico, the 1973 Detective drama starring Al Pacino.

Another Japanese rarity with the impossible poster for Marnie, the 1964 mystery thriller directed by Alfred Hitchcock and starring Sean Connery and Tippi Hedren.

Blindness rhymes with greatness. Stunning portrait of Ray Charles designed by Gary Grimshaw for the 1973 poster of the Ann Arbor Jazz and Blues Festival.

More Soul spectacular with the very rare style B one sheet poster for the 1973 concert documentary Wattstax featuring Isaac Hayes and the Stax Records roster.

Staying with the Musical genre with the colorful Japanese poster for the 1988 rerelease of the legendary Ziegfeld Follies starring Fred Astaire and Gene Kelly.

One of the most exquisite sexploitation US one sheet posters is the one for the 1976 porn movie, Tapestry Of Passion.

The Italian movie poster Artists have the uncanny ability to morph gruesome murder scenes into stunning work of beauty. Proof with the large 2 panel poster for the Australian thriller Color Me Dead.

Carol Danvers aka Captain Marvel may be one the most powerful heroes in the Marvel comics univers but she's first and foremost powerfully feminine as shown in this limited edition print by Adam Hughes.

A vision of blissful and sunny paradisiac beauty with this vintage 1962 travel poster advertising tourism in the Bahamas.

VINTAGE MOVIE POSTER AUCTION GROUP OFFERS ALTERNATIVE AUCTION

The Vintage Movie Poster Auction Group introduces an alternative to auctioning movie accessories on eBay. This auction is for strictly original movie theater accessories (posters, lobbies, stills, press kits, etc.) - items that would have been officially delivered to cinemas around the world.

Auctions (starting a max of one per day; three going at a time) can be any length of time you wish but cannot run longer than 72 hours (3 Days) from your start time. It is suggested that your auction be at least 24 hrs to give buyers from around the world a chance to bid. We have vintage in our name but newer material is perfectly fine.

On Fridays ONLY, we allow auctions of non-traditional memorabilia - autographs, figurines, video posters, prints)

This group is NOT a discussion group! If you want to talk about posters visit www.vintagemoviepostersforum.com (our sponsor).

Dealers welcome and can join as a page to auction accessories.

It is STRICTLY AUCTION sales. ALL non-auction posts will be removed, no explanation needed.

Consign NOW to our June Major Auction

Part I starts June 2nd and NOW is the time to consign your rare and special posters of every kind to this very special auction!

In OUR major auctions (unlike all others, where they pull LOTS of previously "unsold" items off the shelf, even ones that SEEMED to "sell"), we always "start from scratch", because we actually sell all our items, because there are no reserves.

Note that, despite our name, we auction FAR more than just "movie posters"! Our major auctions ALWAYS include a large selection of posters that have nothing to do with movies (travel, war, etc), so if you have any rare examples of those, let us know!

Given that we get the best prices overall (when you compare "apples to apples and oranges to oranges"), doesn't it make sense to send your most desirable and rare items NOW, and they will be guaranteed to be in this very special auction?

And we use the best early consignments (like this great Hawaii travel poster) in our early advertising, which is one more reason to consign your special items early!
