FILM ACCESSORY NEWS

UPCOMING AUCTIONS

Our Spring auction season is upon us! Check out these great auctions which will be ending in March and April, 2021.

MOVIE POSTER ARCHIVES - ENDING WEDNESDAY, MARCH 24th

Movie Poster Archies, the industry's only non-profit archival organization is holding its First "Lagniappe" Auction featuring items that either duplicates of the Archives' holdings or do not meet its parameters. Here's the perfect opportunity for dealers and collectors to get multiple items at bargain prices -- and it all goes to support MPA's goals. Auction ends this Wednesday, March 24th.

EWBANK'S AUCTIONS - MARCH 27th - APRIL 9th - APRIL 30th

Ewbank's Auctions will be holding three auctions between now and April 30th. Star Wars posters highlight the Vintage Poster Auction which will be held on March 27, 2021 at 12:00 UK time. This great auction will be followed by the James Bond 007 auction which will feature, of course, great Bond collectibles. The Michael Armstrong Cinema Collection Auction will end the month of April.

HERITAGE AUCTIONS - MARCH 27th - 28TH

The Son of Frankenstein Italian 4 Fogli is one of the top offerings in Heritage Auctions' Movie Posters Signature Auction to be held on March 27-28 in Dallas, Texas. Other highlights include a Casablanca Half Sheet Style B; an extremely rare The Walking Dead Italian 4 Fogli with Martinati artwork; an exceedingly rare Horse Feathers Three Sheet.

EMOVIEPOSTER APRIL MAJOR AUCTION - ENDS MARCH 30 - APRIL 1 - APRIL 4

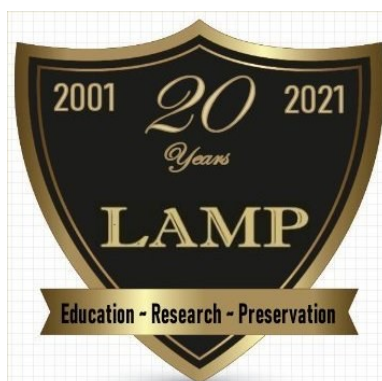

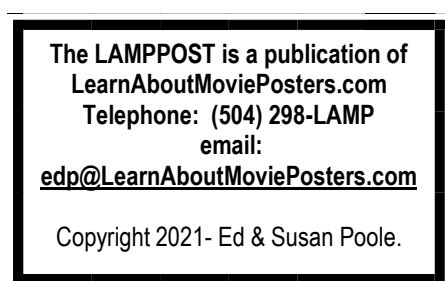

eMoviePoster.com is presenting its April Major Auction in three parts which are currently live. Part I of the April Major Auction featuring 275 linenbacked one sheets will end on March 30. Part II with 283 linenbacked posters of all kinds will close on April 1. Part III, which ends on April 4, contains 232 posters, campaign books and more.

VINTAGE POSTERS AUCTION MARCH 27, 2021

Star Wars collectors will not want to miss the upcoming Ewbank's Vintage Poster Auction scheduled for March 27, 2021 in the UK. A great selection of posters from the Star Wars series are represented in the 226 posters to be offered. These include:

Star Wars 1977 British Quad pre-Oscars version

Star Wars Empire Strikes Back 1980 British Quad featuring Struzan artwork.

Star Wars Return of the Jedi 1983 Advance British Quad

Other auction highlights include:

Creature from the Black Lagoon 1954 US Insert Poster

Keep Calm and Carry On 1939 British Double Crown WW2 propaganda poster.

Jailhouse Rock 1957 British Quad

Night of the Living Dead 1968 US One Sheet Poster

JAMES BOND 007 AUCTION

Son of Frankenstein Italian Poster Could Fetch $120K at Heritage Auctions

Casablanca, Horse Feathers, Walking Dead, Jaws also represented at March 27-28 event

The only known copy of a 4-Fogli from Boris Karloff's third and final appearance in his signature role could be one of the top offerings in Heritage Auctions' Movie Posters Auction March 27-28.

Son of Frankenstein \(E.N.I.C., 1940\)
Italian 4 – Fogli with Francesco Giammari Artwork (estimate: $60,000-120,000) was housed at one time in a private Swiss collection. This large-format poster (measuring 55-1/4 by 77-1/2 inches), featuring a spectacular design from the classic film, is offered through Heritage Auctions for the first time. A potential centerpiece of any horror collection, it captures Frankenstein's Monster emerging from a shadow. Considered the final truly great Frankenstein movie at Universal, it features a stellar cast that included Bela Lugosi, Basil Rathbone and Lionel Atwill, in addition to Karloff. included a stellar cast that included Basil Rathbone and Lionel Atwill, in addition to Karloff.

"This sale features an array of beautiful Italian posters, including this magnificent Son of Frankenstein poster," Heritage Auctions Vintage Posters Director Grey Smith said. "Posters from any of the Frankenstein movies are always in demand, and Francesco Giammari's artwork on this one is extraordinary, making this a potential centerpiece for any collection of posters from the horror genre."

Imaged by Heritage Auctions, HA.com

A Casablanca \(Warner Bros., 1942\) Half Sheet Style B (estimate: $30,000-60,000) comes from the iconic war drama that is among the most popular films ever made, and the Style B half sheet is among the film's most popular posters, widely accepted as the more desirable of the two half sheet styles produced for the film. The focus is on the portraits of Humphrey Bogart and Ingrid Bergman in their most beloved roles, and includes images of five of their co-stars: Paul Henreid, Claude Rains, Conrad Veidt, Peter Lorre and Hollywood newcomer Sydney

An extremely rare The Walking Dead \(Warner Bros., 1936\) Italian 4 - Fogli with Luigi Martinati Artwork (estimate: $30,000-60,000) is one of just two known copies, presented in stone litho, of a spectacular design from one of the most in-demand Italian movie poster artists, offered for the first time ever at Heritage Auctions. Because of the similarities, including a lack of dialog for Karloff's character, between this role and the one he played in Frankenstein, he demanded that more lines be written in to differentiate the two.

Fans and collectors of classic comedy posters will be drawn immediately to an exceedingly rare Horse Feathers \(Paramount, 1932\) Three Sheet (estimate: $25,000-50,000). This extraordinary stone litho three sheet captures the Marx Brothers in one of their funniest Paramount films, in which Groucho is the new president of Huxley College, which has not won a football game in more than 40 years. Nearly a century old, this rare three sheet retains bright color and will make an exceptional addition to any collection.

A wonderful copy of the *Monsieur Beaucaire* \(Paramount, 1924\) One Sheet (estimate: $25,000-50,000) is being offered at Heritage Auctions for the first time. This gorgeous stone litho image captures Valentino, one of the premier stars of the 1920s in a film in which his wife, Natacha Rambova, controlled production values. The offered poster is the only known copy of this one sheet for the adaptation of Booth Tarkington's 1900 short novel and 1904 stage play of the same name.

A *Jaws* \(Universal, 1975\) Seven Sheet with Roger Kastel Artwork (estimate: $15,000-30,000) is massive in scale (83-1/2 by 92-1/2 inches), creating a format almost never printed for any title; to date, Heritage has offered just one other seven sheet: a very rare *Bonnie and Clyde* poster that sold in 2011. One of just a handful of copies known to remain in existence, this rare seven sheet has never been offered before by Heritage Auctions. Kastel's image for the film, created for Steven Spielberg's classic, is universally recognized as one of the most recognizable in films, especially when presented in such impressive scale.

*Dracula* by Basil Gogos \(2002\) Signed Original Acrylic Artwork on Canvas (estimate: $10,000-20,000) is a one-of-a-kind image of Bela Lugosi as Count Dracula. Offered for the first time at Heritage Auctions, it comes from the artist who gained his fame largely by illustrating magazine covers for Famous Monsters of Filmland, including Frankenstein's Monster, the Phantom of the Opera, the Mummy, the Wolf Man, the Gill Man, King Kong and Bram Stoker's infamous count. Included with the stunning portrait of Lugosi are several signed letters from Gogos with their original mailing envelopes, photocopied concept sketches for the painting, signed prints of the painting, and a restrike photo from Dracula that Gogos used as a reference. The painting itself is flawless and shows absolutely no signs of wear or use, a dream piece for any horror collector.

Another large-format gem in the auction is *Spirit of Youth* \(Grand National, 1938\) Six Sheet (estimate: $6,000-12,000), the first poster Heritage Auctions has offered from former heavyweight champion Joe Louis's first film role. It is the only copy known to remain in existence from the film made less than a year into his reign as heavyweight champ.

*Bordertown* \(Warner Bros., 1935\) Italian 4 - Fogli Luigi Martinati Art (estimate: $20,000-40,000)

*A Sainted Devil* \(Paramount, 1924\) One Sheet (estimate: $20,000-40,000)

*The War of the Worlds* \(Paramount, 1953\). Rolled, Very Fine/Near Mint. Half Sheet Style B (estimate: $20,000-40,000)

*Help!* \(United Artists, 1965\) Door Panel Set of 4 (estimate: $15,000-30,000)

*A Son of Frankenstein* \(Universal Films Española, 1942\) First Release Spanish One Sheet (estimate: $15,000-30,000)

Parts I, II and III of our April Major Auction are now "live!"

Our April Major Auction contains 790 items from all of the world and from every decade, and many different sizes and is being run in three parts:

- Part I (ends Tuesday, March 30th): 275 linenbacked one-sheets

- Part II (ends Thursday, April 1st): 283 other linenbacked posters of all kinds

- Part III (ends Sunday, April 4th): 232 posters, campaign books, and much more

Remember that, unlike EVERY other major auction, we have NO reserves at all (and we also have no buyers premiums at all), and we only charge you the actual cost of shipping, and we combine as many purchases into one package as can be safely done, which saves you lots of money. And remember that we COMPLETELY take the "buyer beware" out of our auctions. When you buy from any other major auction, you are "gambling" (on the condition, on the image being accurate, on the items being well packed, etc, etc). But in OUR auctions, you not only KNOW for sure that what we write is 100% accurate, but you also know we give a LIFETIME GUARANTEE as to authenticity on what we sell, something NO other major auction does!

If you have ever bid on our auctions before, then you know that we "go the extra mile" towards ALWAYS honestly describing every single item we auction, both in the words we use, and in the unenhanced super-sized images that clearly show you the actual condition of each item (including whatever flaws it has). In the case of linenbacked or paperbacked posters, we also accurately describe the PRE-RESTORATION defects 100% honestly, something no other auction does, and that is super valuable information to have before bidding.

We are already accepting consignments to our next major auction, our July Major Auction (and for the first time, we are taking consignments to our 22nd Annual Halloween Auction super early, over 7 months ahead)!

HOLLYWOOD POSTER AUCTION SATURDAY, MAY 29TH - MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND

The 28th Annual Hollywood Poster Auction returns!

The live and online event will be held this year by Milestone Auctions on Saturday May 29th 2021 at 12:00 noon EST

Visit milestoneauctions.com for more information

We currently have 7,000 items listed in our eBay store. You can view our eBay listings and store by searching under our seller name Lastmo or by using this link: <https://www.ebay.com/str/lastmovingpicturecompany>

EMOVIEPOSTER.COM

We are already accepting consignments to our next major auction, our July Major Auction (and for the first time, we are taking consignments to our 22nd Annual Halloween Auction super early, over 7 months ahead)! Given the many wonderful results we have been receiving in all our auctions the past year I can't see why any of you with top items you have considered selling would not want to be sending them in for these great auctions!

EMOVIEPOSTER.COM

We are already taking consignments for our 2021 22nd Annual Halloween Auction! Why so early? Because we want this to be our best Halloween auction EVER, and we need to get everyone sending their consignments soon. Contact us today with what you have!

eMoviePoster.com - P.O. Box 874 - West Plains, MO 65775 - phone +1 (417) 256-9616 mail@eMoviePoster.com

Why consign NOW, when these auctions are over 3 months and 7 months away? I am glad you asked! There are two excellent reasons for doing so. One is that those early submissions will be used in our early advertising for each auction, and it has been proven over time that the items in our early ads see increased bidding as a result.

But the second reason is more important! More and more in our Major Auctions we have been getting some of the most popular items consigned to us over and over. This means that if YOU have any of these kinds of titles, then you want to send yours early, so as to greatly improve the chances that yours will make it into the next auction and not be "bumped" to the following major by someone else sending the same item first. I can practically guarantee you that if you wait until near the final deadline, at least one, and maybe several of your consignments of 1950s on items will likely not make it into the auction, because we have one ahead of you (and this even sometimes happens with 1930s and 1940s titles).

SO WHY NOT CONTACT YOU TODAY WITH WHAT YOU HAVE FOR EITHER OUR JULY MAJOR AUCTION OR OUR 22nd ANNUAL HALLOWEEN AUCTION? Great selling prices, the lowest commissions of ANY major auction, and a 100% honest auction house to deal with that has a 31 year track record of complete honesty and reliability! Who could ask for anything more?

Note that we have been SO incredibly busy that we have not yet had a chance to make any preview ads for the upcoming July auction, but here are two for the Halloween Auction (and yes, the four one-sheets pictured WILL be in that auction, each starting at $1, of course with NO reserve (and NO buyers premium)!

So if YOU have horror/sci-fi material you'll wanting to send now for this auction in October, please send it right away. As I said above, since we always take the first example of each item we receive, you will guarantee your items WILL be in the auction by sending them now, and EVERY Halloween auction (more so than the other Major Auctions) we get lots of titles sent more than once, and I always hate having to tell people they "waited too long"!

Dracula laughs all the way to the (blood) bank at Ewbank's £80,000+ Vintage Movie Poster auction.

Bidding bonanza sees 98% of lots change hands as estimates are trounced

Fangs certainly ARE what they used to be as the star lots proved at Ewbank's £64,000 Vintage Poster Auction on February 26.

Vampire films starring Christopher Lee inspired some of the most vividly graphic and kitsch poster designs in British cinema history. As an investment, these are now paying back more per square inch than many other works on paper.

This time round three examples in particular showed just how melodrama and colour can combine to pull in the bidders.

Leading the way was Dracula Prince of Darkness, a 30 x 40 inch British Quad poster, for the 1966 Hammer classic. With the ghoulish Lee underlit as the Count peering menacingly out of the poster, next to the block title letters dripping with red, this was all schlock fans could wish for and it left the £700-1000 estimate behind to sell for £2,375.

At £1,750, the 30 x 40 inch British Quad poster for Lee's 1958 debut as the Count, in the simply titled Dracula, is a more straightforward design and so, perhaps not as inspired. Nonetheless, as the beginning of the Hammer franchise, it holds much cachet and is a rarity in such good condition and it more than doubled the top end of its £500-800 guide.

Taste the Blood of Dracula, from 1969, brought the Hammer poster design to almost an apogee of self-parody, revelling in the strapline Drink a pint of Blood A day, no doubt a cheeky reference to the Milk Marketing Board's Drink a pinta milka day slogan from its long-running campaign. Another 30 x 40 in British Quad, and showing Lee in full-fanged mania amid dripping red, a blonde victim looking on in horror, it shunned a £300-500 estimate to soar to £1,375

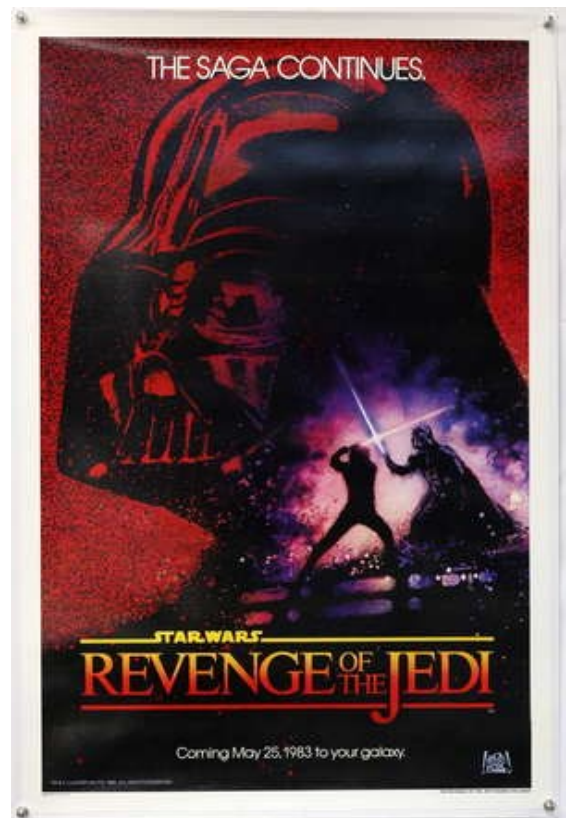

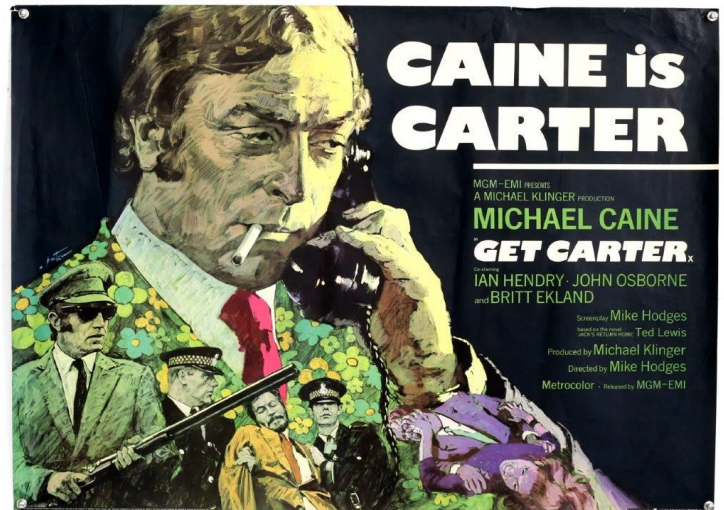

As expected, a 30 x 40 inch British Quad poster for the classic British gangster film noir Get Carter, from 1971, starring Michael Caine, fetched the top price at £4750.

A US One Sheet film poster for the 1971 movie Le Mans (1971), starring Steve McQueen had the added attraction of having been obtained from a press reception at the London Hilton, Park Lane following a press preview of the film in the capital. Pitched at £250-350, it made £1,375.

As usual, rarities from the Star Wars franchise did well, led by a price of £1,875 for a US advance teaser poster billed under the title Star Wars: Revenge of the Jedi (1982) against hopes of £400-600.

Bullitt (2014), a Zoetrope Galleries limited edition art print, initialled by the artist Henry Villegas & numbered 113/300, also excited film fans. The 24 x 36 inch artwork came with a certificate of authenticity to sell for £1,875 against a guide of £200-400.

The James Bond franchise also continues to draw a large following. Despite the continued delay of its release, No Time To Die is already making serious money from its associated artwork in the form of promotional posters.

Six British 30 x 40 inch Quad posters for the postponed November 2020 release, each showing a different character including Daniel Craig and Rami Malek, abandoned a £200 -400 estimate to go for £1,250

A Main April One Sheet teaser poster for the planned April 2020 release, showing an image of Daniel Craig, measured 27 x 40 inches and was estimated at £80-120. It sold for £625.

"There really was something for everyone in this sale," said specialist Ewbank's Alastair McCrea. "The enduring popularity of the movie poster as a collectible was underscored here by both the fact that 98% of the lots sold, and the money they attracted was around 55% higher than the highest estimate for the entire sale."

Ewbank's have added an additional Movie Poster sale date this March! The sale will be live online on Saturday 27th March 2021, full catalogue is available at www.ewbanks.co.uk.

If you missed your chance at these great James Bond collectibles, be sure to check out Ewbank's next James Bond 007 Auction which will be held on April 9, 2021 at 12:00 p.m. in the UK. See the preview catalog here at www.ewbanks.co.uk.

THE 2021 WINTER POSTER COLLECTION IS HERE

You can go straight to the BLOG here

Dear Posterophiles,

Illustration Art is at the core of the Gallery's DNA.

Obviously within its name but also as the Main source of the Art we offer from all around the world.

My love for the Art of Illustration dates back to old turn of the 20th Century books either drawn by THE greatest illustrator, Gustave Dore, or some of the pages of Mucha's Le pater that I was exposed to as a young kid by my beloved dad.

The realism of the drawings, the incredible detailed pages still resonate to this day and made me eternally in love with the simple yet powerful illustrative Art, above all other Art forms which I admire too.

The first pieces of the Gallery's collection I acquired were mainly by the ones I consider to be the two greatest illustrators of the 20th century, Robert McGinnis (still alive) and Frank McCarthy (R.I.P.).

You know many of their Art as along the hundreds of pulp book covers and paintings they did, they also painted many of the most iconic movie posters of the 60's and 70's alone or together as on the 3 James Bond posters they did jointly (Thunderball, You Only Live Twice and On Her Majesty's Secret Service).

This kind of Art has been vanishing due to most movie producers, book publishers and other advertisers preferring digital or photography visuals - to painted illustrative Art - to enhance their commercial products.

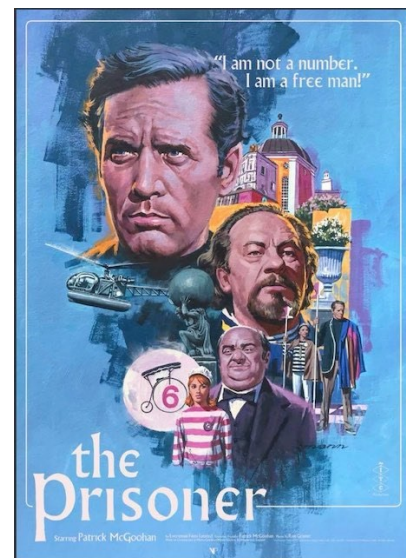

So in my endless search for great illustrative Art, I came across a stunning very limited edition print of Dr. No done in 2018 by a true gentleman and Artist extraordinaire called PAUL MANN.

Mann is experienced with 40 year + of illustration Art, from Advertising to book covers and now being the most in-demand illustration Artist having published tens of very limited edition prints with an output, mixing both retro style and Modernity, that is not only large in quantity yet never fails in quality.

Having bought several original Art pieces by Mr Mann for my own personal collection, I'm always very proud to display his oeuvre in many of the Blogs when I can grab some of the prints which sell out in seconds (literally) when initially offered.

THIS WEEK'S BLOG (Click here) has selected 20 of Paul Mann's limited edition prints revisiting many movie classics from the 1930's to the 1990's.

Here is just one of those, created in 2018, which I love both for the incredible details rendered but also as it's one of my all time favorite TV shows, The Prisoner.

WHAT'S NEW THIS WEEK?

- * NEW ITEMS: The 2021 WINTER COLLECTION strong of 800+ posters is available in the NEW PRODUCTS section. Here are just 20 that should make you wish to explore the entire collection before it is replaced by the spring collection in few weeks.

Illustrative Art takes many shapes but is always used to maximize both veracity in details as well as mystery. Here is another great example with the stunning painting by Hans Braun used to depict the voluptuous Sophia Loren on the German poster of the 1967 Italian horror comedy, Ghosts Italian Style \(Questi fantasmi\).

Horror and beauty brought to another level with one of my Top 10 Japanese movie posters ever designed, i.e. the one printed for The Fearless Vampire Killers, the 1967 horror comedy starring real life couple, Roman Polanski and Sharon Tate.

Feminine beauty comes in all colors and the more colors, the better. Sumptuous limited edition print commemorating Alice Coltrane's groundbreaking 1971 Jazz album, Journey In Satchidananda. We also have the Variant version.

Another colorful Alice, as trippy as the singer above, is Lewis Carroll's creation, Alice In Wonderland, adapted by Walt Disney in one of the most 'out there' cartoons ever displayed on the big screen. The poster for the 1972 Japanese rerelease is another rarity that hardly comes by.

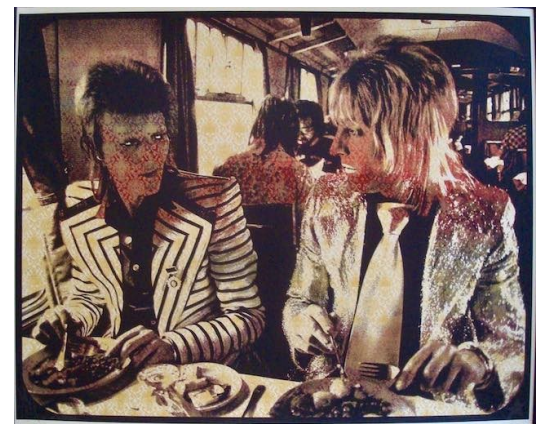

Beyond Disney, the most popular Animation films come from Japan with the Anime genre. Many of those movies were adapted straight from Mangas such as Akira, the most famous of them all, created by Katsuhiro Otomo and released in 1988 on the big screen. The Thai movie poster is as unique as it is rare.

Sexier than Anime (and less obscene than the Hentai) are Max Fleischer's classic 1930's cartoons of the lovely Betty Boop. Here are a trio of limited edition prints (sold individually) by John Keaveney.

Another Limited edition print but one that is becoming extremely difficult to find since its original printing in 2012 is David Bowie's The Last Supper in which Matt Dey/Blunt Graffix revisits the iconic photo of Bowie and Mick Ronson.

Le clan des siciliens \(The Sicilian Clan\) is among the best loved French movie posters (and among the best heist movies ever filmed) thanks to the 3 titans (Gabin, Delon and Ventura) starring in it. The Polish poster designed by Marian Stachurki is also the rarest to find. Another Gallery's exclusive!

One of the best modern era movie posters designed for La La Land, keeps appreciating itself as it encompasses modernity and visual homage to Reid Miles' Blue Note Records covers. This is the smaller sized poster (same image as the larger one sheet which is now fetching higher prices). A great piece to adorn your walls with.

Blacklight and fluorescent posters were all the rage between the late 60's and early 70's especially used on head shop psychedelic posters. Enjoy the rare 1968 Pandora poster titled LOVE (which you can see in the middle) and glows in the dark when exposed to dark light.

Anita Ekberg is another buxom Blonde beauty who never failed to raise the naturally already elevated temperature of hot blooded males. Very rare original half sheet poster for La Dolce Vita.

Even Hell goddesses can cry....Superb Art by 'Big' John Buscema used as a Day-Glo greeting card for the 1971 Marvel Third Eye series of blacklight cards and posters.

Go Nagai's creations (Mazinger, Great mazinger and UFO Robot / Goldorak) are among the most well known of the Anime genre all around the world thanks to the success of the TV series particularly in France and Italy where many episodes were also released in theaters. Here is the complete set of 6 Italian fotobustas for the 1978 movie Mazinger Vs UFO Robot. Impossible to find in this Near Mint condition.

Vivid colors are not the exclusivity of the Anime genre but can enhance horror movies too. Proof with the day-glo inks lifting the large 2 panel Italian poster for Chamber Of Horrors to new heights of scare.

Few posters can translate the sound and fury of a movie. I believe the German poster for AC/DC's concert documentary Let There Be Rock does the job fairly well. Hope you agree!

We stick with black and white German design with the magnificent concert poster created by Gunther Kieser to advertise the 1968 History Of Soul Festival in Hamburg.

Illustrative Art always with this vintage 1978 commercial poster printed to advertise Battlestar Galactica, the then very successful TV series on ABC. Great Art by John Solie.

A gorgeous and cheeky poster created for the German release of the 1970 Bikers movie, The Naked Angels. Never seen it before so had to grab it as soon as I laid my eyes on it (the poster I mean!!!!).

Acapulco's famous cliffs have been used as the backdrop of so many movies and travel posters but none as stylized as this rare and great designed mid 70's travel poster from Western Airlines.

* SALES: All our ON SALE posters are here.
