Guess who's going to the Columbus Moving Picture Show?

"The COLUMBUS MOVING PICTURE SHOW"

silents to sound

rare vintage memorabilia

Join us May 26 - 29, 2022
at the Renaissance Columbus Downtown Hotel

We're continuing the Memorial Day tradition in Columbus, Ohio with 4 days of films, friends, and dealers of vintage movie paper, stills, autographs, 8mm and 16mm film, records, books, DVDs, blu-rays and more! A vintage film fan's paradise!

Feature films and shorts, all on actual 16mm film, including silent films with live piano accompaniment, including:

- IS EVERYBODY HAPPY? (1943) starring Ted Lewis, introduction by the Ted Lewis Museum
 - THE LITTLE CAFE (1939) starring Max Linder, introduction by Lisa Stein Haven, author of The Rise and Fall of Max Linder
 - TOP BANANA (1954) starring Phil Silvers & Rose Marie, a rare original Kodachrome print with 15 minutes of usually missing footage
 - LOVE THY NEIGHBOR (1940) starring Jack Benny, Fred Allen, and Eddie Rochester Anderson... AND MANY MORE TITLES!
- Over 20 features plus our annual animation show, comedy shorts including Laurel and Hardy, and the 1940 serial ADVENTURES OF RED RYDER! See our web site for more titles...

ALSO: Film introductions from Nick Santa Maria and James D'Arc, and book signings by Richard Barrios, Scott Eyman, Tim Lusier, Robert Matzen, and Maggie McCormick

We are!

We are very excited to be attending the Columbus Moving Picture Show. It's been ten years since we attended its predecessor event, Cinevent, and we are looking forward to seeing old and new faces.

COME SEE US AT TABLE 91

We will be set up on Table 91, next to Morris Everett. Come see what we've been doing over the last ten years.

LEARN ABOUT MOVIE POSTERS

Learn About Movie Posters continues to be one of the leading reference sites for the movie poster hobby. We have released several reference books, some of which will be available for sale at our table. We will also be demonstrating our Production Code Data Base with over 70,000 codes to help identify those untitled movie stills. BRING ANY STILLs TO OUR TABLE AND WE'LL TRY TO HELP IDENTIFY THEM — FOR FREE!

MOVIE POSTER ARCHIVES

As many of you know, we are the archivists for Movie Poster Archives, the first non-profit organization dedicated to the preservation of movie posters and film accessories. To date, we have received 1.1 million pieces.

Come learn about its programs and MPA's Lagniappe Auction which provides an opportunity for collectors and dealers to acquire excess items that are not needed for our programs.

LAGNIAPPE AUCTION MAY 25 - JUNE 1

STUDIO PHOTO CARDS, MOVIE STILLS AND POSTERS HIGHLIGHT UPCOMING LAGNIAPPE AUCTION

Movie Studio Cards were very popular during the 1920s to the 1960s. When you would write to a studio or celebrity, it was very common to be sent a 5x7" of the celebrity with a facsimile signature.

Movie Poster Archives received a collection of these cards with many duplicates. The duplicates are being offered in the current auction, presented in collections of three different celebrities per lot. There are a dozen different lots, with opening bids of $3.00 per lot. Here's a sample:

Lot 537 features cards for Alice Joyce, Corinne Griffith and Alice White.

In addition, this auction has over 800 lots featuring a wide variety of stills, posters, promos and collectibles from the 1930s to 2000s. These items represent a wide variety of genres, including horror, musical, western, blockbusters, etc. There are also TV and celebrity items.

AUCTION ENDS JUNE 1st.

HOLLYWOOD POSTER AUCTION—JUNE 4th

On Saturday, June 4th 2022 Milestone Auctions, The Last Moving Picture Company, and The Hollywood Poster Auction will hold its 30th Ohio movie memorabilia, poster, and still auction. Viewing and live auction will be held at Milestone Auctions, 38198 Willoughby Parkway, Willoughby, OH 44094.

Viewing of all lots will be available from Wednesday, June 1st until the date of the auction. Prior to May 30th, all lots will be available for viewing at The Last Moving Picture Company, 10535 Chillicothe Rd., Kirtland, OH 44094 beginning May 1st through May 30th.

There will be between 600-800 lots, 400 of which will be stills, and the remainder posters and other original movie ephemera. Most of the stills are from the Everett Collection archives and have never been offered for sale.

Images from all lots will be available online beginning May, and bidding will be available at www.milestoneauctions.com, invaluable, auction zip, and by phone, fax, or in person. Buyer's premium is 20%. Shipping available. All questions should be directed to Morris Everett, Jr. at 440-256-3660 (store) or 216-598-2468 (cell). I will be on hand at the auction site each day beginning June 1st to answer questions.

We are currently taking quality consignments valued $200 or more at The Last Moving Picture Company. Our retail location is open by appointment, and we encourage people to come and browse our selection of 150,000+ posters and lobby cards, and 2,000,000 stills. We also have approximately 7,000 lobby cards listed on eBay (under seller I.D. Lastmo) and are having a 20% off one day New Year sale on all buy-it-now items in our eBay store. Here's looking to another successful year and happy collecting in 2022!

Entertainment Memorabilia Live Auction: Los Angeles 2022

June 21–24, 2022

Over 1,800 lots of rare props, costumes and production material will be going up for auction at the Entertainment Memorabilia Live Auction: Los Angeles 2022 scheduled for June 21-24, 2022. The auction, which will take place in Valencia, California, will include items from over 600 films and TV shows and a selection of over 200 comics and comic art lots. Bidding is available online, by phone or in person.

Highlights of the auction include a collection of 15 original props and costumes from the scripted limited event series The Offer. This highly anticipated series, currently streaming on Paramount +, stars Miles Teller, Matthew Goode, Dan Fogler, Burn Gorman, Colin Hanks, Giovanni Ribisi and Juno Temple, and follows the making of “The Godfather,” one of the most legendary films in Paramount’s history.

A portion of the proceeds from the sale of these lots will benefit the Motion Picture & Television Fund. MPTF supports working and retired members of the entertainment community with a safety net of health and social services.

The full online and PDF download catalog will be available May 24, 2022.

WELCOME NEW LAMP SPONSOR

LePoster.com

We would like to welcome our newest LAMP Sponsor ... Linda and Igor of LePoster.com. For more than 80 years, their family has been active in the movie business as independent movie theater owners and movie distributors. Now, they are selling parts of their collection via their shop at LePoster.com.

With movie theaters and a movie distribution company in Antwerp and Brussels, their roots are in Belgium. Contacts and travels were made all over the world and during those years their collection of movie posters, stills, etc. grew quite large. The movie theaters are gone and so is the movie distribution company. What is left are good memories and quite a few collectible items.

Their online collection of authentic movie posters grows every day, with over 1,500 more posters to be added to the catalog. There are thousands of movie stills waiting to be added. Here are examples of two posters which will soon be appearing in the webshop in the weeks to come.

We already have a good number of items for the August Major Auction, and given the many wonderful results we have been receiving in all our auctions the past months I can't see why any of you with top items you have considered selling would not want to be sending them in for these great auctions!

Why consign NOW, when these auctions are 2 months and 5 months away (and remember that the August Major Auction starts July 17th, so it is closer than it seems)? I am glad you asked!

There are two excellent reasons for doing so. One is that those early submissions will be used in our early advertising for each auction, and it has been proven over time that the items in our early ads see increased bidding as a result.

But the second reason is more important! More and more in our Major Auctions we have been getting some of the most popular items consigned to us over and over. Great examples are the Jaws one-sheet and insert and the Return of the Jedi (revenge style) one-sheet. We have one of each virtually every major auction, because the prices remain so very strong!

But this means that if YOU have any of these kinds of titles, then you want to send yours early, so as to greatly improve the chances that yours will make it in. I can practically guarantee you that if you wait until near the final deadline, at least one, and maybe several of your consignments of 1950s on items will likely not make it into the auction, because we have one ahead of you (and this even sometimes happens with 1930s and 1940s titles).

SO WHY NOT CONTACT US TODAY WITH WHAT YOU HAVE FOR EITHER OUR AUGUST MAJOR AUCTION OR OUR 23rd ANNUAL HALLOWEEN AUCTION?

Great selling prices, the lowest commissions of ANY major auction, and a 100% honest auction house to deal with that has a 31 year track record! Who could ask for anything more?

THE 2022 SPRING POSTER COLLECTION IS HERE

You can go straight to the BLOG here

Dear Posterophiles,

The Comic Book Art world has been heavily mourning these last 2 weeks with the near simultaneous passing of George Perez, famous for his incredible Art on such comic books as New Teen Titans, Crisis Of Infinite Earths, his stint on the Avengers, revitalizing Wonder woman...and so many other incredible books) and NEAL ADAMS.

Most of you may not be comic geeks like your scribe who actually learnt English - not thru Shakespeare - but thru zillions hours of reading Marvel and DC Comic books in English from the tender age of 12 when my beloved uncle brought stacks of books from New York, literally changing my life and my vision of Art.

There are many great comic Book Artists/creators but few are truly groundbreaking: Jack 'King' Kirby, 'Big' John Buscema, Steve Ditko, Frank Frazetta, Will Eisner, Jim Steranko and I must add Neal Adams.

As I wrote you might not know his name but the influence he had till his passing at the age of 80, 2 weeks ago, has rarely been achieved.

For those who saw the latest The Batman movie, the film is a genuine success as it describes Batman as a Detective (and not as a cartoonish superhero) in a very dark, gritty atmosphere, exactly as Neal Adams transformed him in from Brave And The Bold 75 in 1968 and then from Batman 232 in 1971.

Indeed by the mid to late 60's comic books were seen as gimmicks and fun but not serious Art, thanks (and no thanks) to the massive success of the Batman TV series - starring Adam West - which made him a camp hero, far from the original thoughts of his creator Bob Kane.

Neal Adams (along with Denny O'Neill) literally changed that not only in content but in artistic style bringing neorealism into the Comic book world where graphics were colorful and unrealistic in shape and forms.

Here is one of his most famous drawings illustrating the cover of Batman 251 which made The Joker a true psychopath villain.

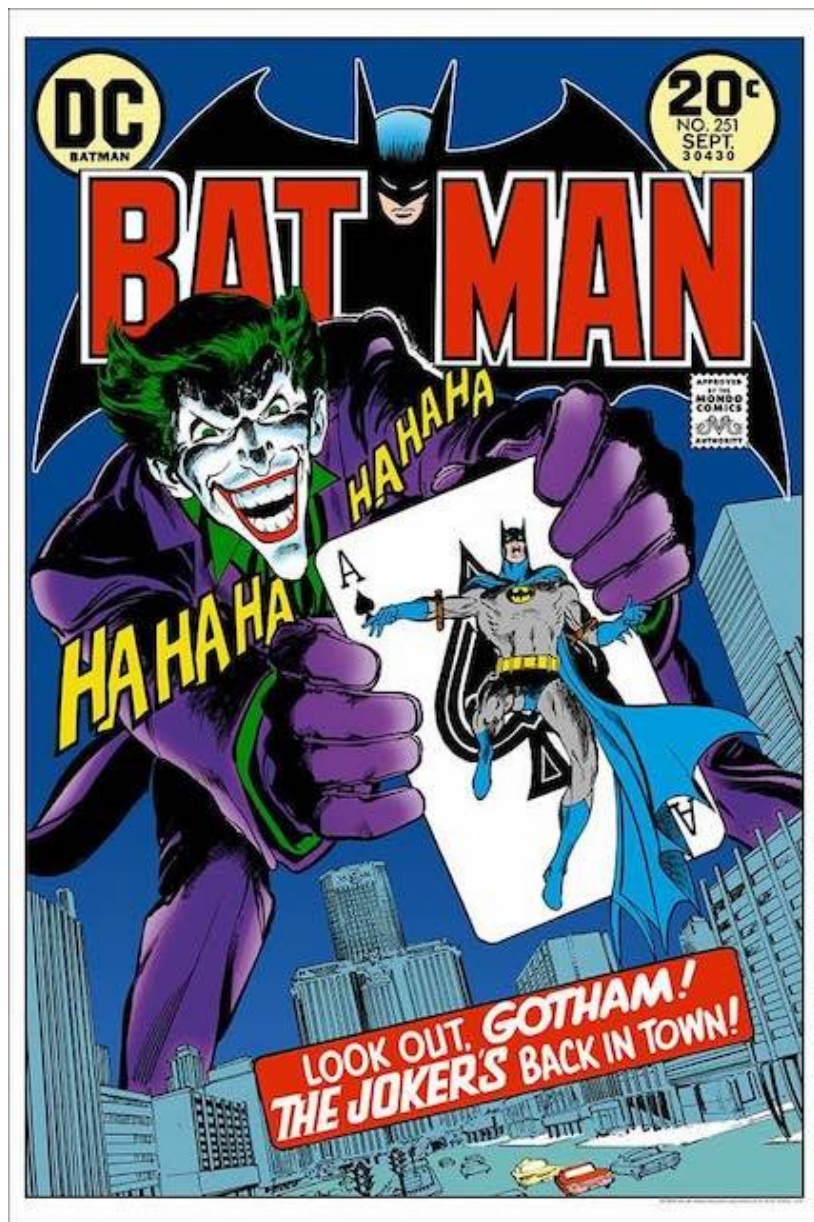

Having started as an Advertising Artist then making his debut with the Ben Casey strip, Neal Adams was recruited by DC Comics (after a brief stint at Warren) where he reinvented the character Deadman then jumped onto the Batman series and also drew hundreds of incredibly detailed and iconic covers for most DC books (Superheroes, Western, Romance...)

Way before so called "modern justice warriors" He fought hard to create the second Black superhero at DC (John Stewart - based after Sidney Poitier!) in Green Lantern while also tackling drug issues in the same series.

Prolific artist, Neal was simultaneously freelancing for Marvel Comics at the same time with incredible stories and Art made for X-Men and The Avengers among others. He formed his own studio Continuity in 1973 then his own Comics line Continuity Comics in 1982.

But beyond his artistic genius and incessant output, Neal Adams should be remembered for being a tireless fighter for Comic Book Artists and their right to own their Original Art. He demanded that DC pay the rent and pensions for Superman creators, Jerry Siegel and Joe Schuster who were living in near poverty.

Neal Adams was also very much touched by the Jewish holocaust (as his father was a soldier who fought in WW2 and he had a Jewish mother in law) and fought (yet sadly lost) with the Auschwitz museum to give some paintings back to Dina Babitt, a Czech artist, who painted several pieces at the order of the angel of death Josef Mengele.

Beyond his extensive Comic Book Art, Neal Adams also created several movie posters which are now extremely rare mainly for Bruceploitation and Blaxploitation movies but also some bigger studio productions such as Westworld.

THIS WEEK'S BLOG (Click here) showcases 10 posters from Neal Adams culled from the Gallery's offering. We hope you will enjoy them and in a humble way by doing so honor his memory and light up his departed soul.

Here is one of them, the iconic illustration created for Westworld with the luminous Japanese poster.

WHAT'S NEW THIS WEEK?

* NEW ITEMS: The 2022 SPRING COLLECTION with its 823 posters is available in the NEW PRODUCTS section. Enjoy the following 20 posters selected as always (sort of) randomly.

As mentioned above, the new The Batman movie is a delightful surprise, being true to the essence of the characters. Enjoy one of the two brand new limited edition print hand signed by Paul Mann.

Talking about uber genial Artists, what about a small sized Spaniard called Pablo! Stunning portrait for the gatefold Japanese press poster of the 1956 documentary Le mystere Picasso.

Rationing is very real these days...History keeps repeating itself so always look back to better leap forward. Make This Pledge vintage WW2 Propaganda poster.

We love strong women..and elegant ones to boot. Ultra rare style B Japanese poster for Two For The Road (only seen two in 12 years) featuring one of the best images of Audrey Hepburn on paper.

Joyce Jillson was another sexy lady exposing her assets and karate chops in the 1973 erotic Martial arts movie Superchick. Impossible to find Italian poster with fabulous Art.

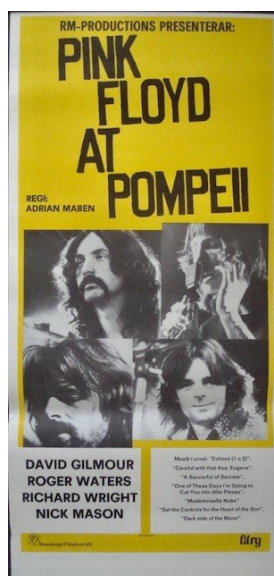

Real tough men know how to dress well...Proof with Alain Delon and Jean-Paul Belmondo on the very rare original Belgian poster for Borsalino.

Colors again with added blacklight features for the commercial poster printed in 1972 after the release of the Concert For Bangladesh movie.

Another classic filmed Rock concert was Pink Floyd Live At Pompeii. The insert sized Swedish poster is one of the best designed for the original release.

From Pompeii we go to space with cigar chomping Manga hero Space Adventure Cobra surrounded by scantily clad ladies on the style D Japanese poster...A future many nerds dream of!

Telly Savalas was not chomping cigars but sucking lollipops and shooting at bad guys in the Kojak TV series. Italian poster for the theatrical release of two episodes of the show.

Another detective as handsome as tough was Paul Newman in Harper. Impossible to find British Quad poster with great design.

You may remember her mainly as the Bionic Woman but Lindsay Wagner had more power and charms than her bionic assets. Rare 1977 commercial poster titled Bio-Babe?!?

Among all the European actresses of the late 60's-mid 70's, Edwige Fenech may be one of the sexiest especially when she laid her flawless body to the murderous horrific men in the many Gialli movies she starred in. Ultra rare large 2 panel Italian poster for the 1978 rerelease of The Case of the Bloody Iris.

Laurent Durieux (and his evil twin Jack) is/are good friend(s) of the Gallery. A long career filled with many masterpieces and still able to surpass himself with this incredible brand new limited edition print reimagining Marathon Man.

Genial designers again with one of the many new acquisitions of German posters by Hans Hillmann. Here is his visual reinterpretation in 1967 of the French classic, Quai des orfèvres.

From black and white to psychedelic colors with a concert poster we don't see too often, i.e. the one designed for Indian Puddin' and Pipe's 1970 San Francisco concert.

One of the many new Japanese Yakuza and Samurai posters is this striking image for the Abashiri Prison series starring Ken Takakura.

Japanese Design again with a sumptuous image for the 1972 Pinky movie, Delicate Skillful Fingers.

One of the (if not the) rarest image from Gunther Kieser's famous American Blues and Folk series is the original poster for the 1970 edition titled Negro Blues which was quickly changed to Blues and Gospel!!!

A wonderful illustration - Art Nouveau style - by Steven Carpenter in 1971 to advertise Tourism in Monte-Carlo \(Monaco\).

Learn About Movie Posters (“LAMP”)

Now, few remember the mid 1970s when there was no information anywhere about movie posters, and only snail mail for ordering in a couple of magazines. You learned by talking with older collectors. Looking back, it was sort of like the Stone Age.

After writing the first reference book on poster collecting in 1997 called, Collecting Movie Posters, in 2000, we closed our retail store and looked to the internet. In January 2001, we uploaded 200 pages to the internet and LearnAboutMoviePosters.com (“LAMP”) was born.

Since that day, LAMP has expanded over a thousand times its beginning size, systemically creating and expanding a line of information collectors, dealers, auctions and hobby enthusiasts needed to be more accurate and stable.

We have been here for the trials and tribulations experienced by the hobby. For example, we appeared as expert witnesses and researchers in four major court battles establishing the copyright division between film and posters. We supplied research material for legal prosecution for fraud and continual reports to the hobby during the Universal scandal of 2010. We had actually predicted that a scenario like that was possible in our 2002 LAMP book.

LAMP, both online and in the 17 industry reference books written, pioneered research on areas such as: NSS codes; censorship stamps; printers' unions; distributors and printers information on 38 countries, compiled over 70,000 production codes to help identify unknown movie stills; and costumes and props. We also created dozens of tools to help date and verify posters to assist auctions and dealers with identification/verification problems.

Our greatest accomplishment is that many of these areas LAMP pioneered are considered common knowledge throughout forum and collector circles today. LAMP continues to work and expand research and stabilization of the industry as we march into the future.

SPOTLIGHT ON OUR LAMP SPONSORS

LAMP is now in its 21st year online as an anchor and pioneer of research for the movie poster industry. This is only due to the fantastic support that we have received over the years from our wonderful sponsors.

We would like to present our sponsors and remind everyone that these auctions, dealers and service providers are supporting our efforts to educate, encourage and inform the movie poster community. We could not do it without them. They are presented in the order that their sponsorship began, with emovieposter.com (Bruce Hersenson) being our Founding Sponsor in 2001.
