When Movie Poster Archives holds an auction, the goal is two-fold: (1) raise funds for operations and programs, and (2) find good homes for precious memorabilia. It might be tempting to investigate prospective winners like adoptive parents, but we trust that bidders will value and care for their treasures.

Our auction is filled with items that don't meet our archive criteria such as classic tv stills, oddities such as magazine covers and ads, and video posters or the extras when we receive several of the same items. Once MPA has the items needed for documentation on a film title, any duplicates of that item can be sold to help create needed funding. We call these items Lagniappe. Since all items are donated, no value is assigned, therefore all items will start at the same low price with no reserve no matter the value of the item.

Second Ever Major Mondo Print Auction

On December 14th, eMoviePoster.com auctioned 2,346 Mondo and Alamo Drafthouse art prints in the "First Ever Major Mondo Print Auction" with $732,660.00 in sales for the day, and all proceeds went to benefit the Alamo Drafthouse employees furloughed by the pandemic.

NOW, starting October 6th, and ending the 27th, eMoviePoster.com will auction just over 2,500 Mondo and Alamo Drafthouse art prints in their "Second Ever Major Mondo Print Auction" and there is a special feature to this auction that makes it even BETTER than the first one (but that won't be announced until the auction is officially announced on Monday the 3rd!)

eMoviePoster.com's 23rd Annual Halloween Auction - October 9-30

eMoviePoster.com's 23rd Annual Halloween Auction starts VERY soon, on October 9th, and ends the 30th!

It contains around 1,850 auctions, and has something for EVERY collector of horror/sci-fi material, covering all years, sizes and price ranges!

And remember that, unlike EVERY other major auction, there are no reserves or buyers premiums, and every poster has a new owner at auction's end, and EVERY poster is honestly described, so very important when dealing with expensive and/or restored posters!

And of course, ALL of the great posters and other items pictured below WILL be in this auction, all starting at $1, of course with NO reserve (and NO buyers premium)!

IMPORTANT! We were also consigned the MOST amazing collection of 1950s horror/sci-fi lobby cards, including complete sets on just about EVERY modern sci-fi title starting in 1950, and almost all in great unrestored condition!

Our 23rd Annual Halloween Auction starts October 9th! A wonderful selection of 1,700+ horror/sci-fi posters, lobby cards, and more!

Propstore Welcomes Grey Smith as Director of US Poster Auctions

September 26, 2022 – Industry-leading Expert, Formerly with Heritage Auctions, Brings 40+ Years Experience Into Propstore to Build the Best in Poster Offerings!

Propstore, one of the world's leading film and TV memorabilia companies, announced that Grey Smith, a noted industry expert and lifelong collector, is joining the company to lead their United States poster auction offerings. Smith was previously the founding consignment director for the rare poster division at Heritage Auctions.

"We are thrilled to have Grey join the Propstore team, given his extensive industry experience and track record of curating some of the most successful poster auctions in the world," Propstore CEO Stephen Lane said. "Grey brings with him over 20 years of experience producing auctions, including more than 65 sales that included some of the most valuable posters ever sold. Grey has a reputation for consignor satisfaction, and we know he will drive Propstore's Los Angeles-based poster auction program to new heights. We look forward to expanding on our offerings in this exciting collectibles category and growing into one of the premier destinations for poster collectors and dealers."

Grey began collecting movie posters as a child and the thrill of finding the rarest examples has never left him. Throughout his youth, he was regularly buying, trading, and selling some of the best pieces in cinema history. When Smith completed college, he entered the film industry and worked in production for twenty years while continually searching for poster rarities during his travels. In 2001, wishing to have less time on the road away from his family, Smith pivoted his hobby into a career when he took a position at Heritage Auctions to produce and develop their poster auction program. He subsequently left Heritage in 2022.

"Grey's knowledge of film and posters is encyclopedic, and his enthusiasm for the field is incredible," stated Brandon Alinger, Propstore COO.

Grey Smith states: "I couldn't be more excited than to join a team of great professionals, who have a fierce passion for the auction industry as well as a wonderful reputation for their knowledge and ethical handling of the best in motion picture props," Smith says. "I look forward to contributing at Propstore with my intimate knowledge of auctions, posters, and movie history. We are planning our first major U.S. poster auction for early 2023."

Propstore is accepting consignments for future poster auctions now. Contact Grey Smith, Director of US Poster Auctions: grey@propstore.com

THE 2022 SUMMER POSTER COLLECTION IS (still) HERE

You can go straight to the BLOG here

Dear Posterophiles,

We just learnt of the passing of JEAN-LUC GODARD, the famed French-Swiss Director, "enfant terrible" du Cinema and probably the most famous - and controversial figure of the Nouvelle Vague movement.

I must disclose that I despise both the man (his treating of women, repeated disgusting anti-semitic comments...abandonment/betrayal of professional friends) and most of his movies - but I also recognize that many of those belong to the pantheon of World's Cinema.

His creative output especially between 1960 and 1970 is so rich and has influenced so many Directors and impressed moviegoers around the world that it is normal to pay tribute to Artistic brilliance.

A very rich filmography indeed with no less than 131 long and short forms shot between 1955 and 2018. As with Truffaut, this son of French/Swiss bourgeois family ingested thousands of movies in the Cinematheque, giving him an encyclopedic knowledge of the Artform, prompting him to become a critic from 1951 and joining the legendary team of Les Cahiers du Cinéma.

A born-Provocateur, Godard worked hard to dynamite all the established codes of French filmmaking from his first shorts but it is with his first long form in 1960, A bout de souffle (Breathless) that he created movie history.

It is a seminal movie, not only because of its actors, Belmondo and Seberg, but also and mainly because of the input of 3 people who contributed to making it a masterpiece. Francois Truffaut who co-wrote the story and script (with an uncredited Claude Chabrol); Jean-Pierre Melville, who acted in the movie and was the one suggesting Godard to shorten it, forcing the latter to re-edit it giving its fast-paced, more dynamic style; and THE man without whom Godard's movies would be boring as hell, the master cameraman, Raoul Coutard, who invented a brand new style of filmmaking with hand-held camera and now classic tracking shots.

One of Godard's talents has always been to surround himself with better talents than him but his ungrateful self only managed to create a schism with most of them after he used them to his benefit.

So THIS WEEK'S BLOG (click here) showcases 10 of his greatest movies with extremely rare posters originating from Belgium, France, Germany, Italy, the US and particularly Japan where he is highly regarded.

To give you a taste of what you will find in the Blog, here is the luminous BB on the original Japanese poster for Le mepris (Contempt). Note the added 'fake purple panties to pass censorship!

WHAT'S NEW THIS WEEK?

* NEW ITEMS: The 2022 SUMMER COLLECTION with 886 posters is still available in the NEW PRODUCTS section. Enjoy a curated selection of 20 posters below.

Among the French Directors of the late 50s-60', Jean-Pierre Melville is my favorite. Here is the very rare original poster for Le doulos starring Jean-Paul Belmondo.

French magnificence with a sublime design by Jouineau Bourduge for the classic 1964 Japanese Drama Woman In the Dunes.

French engineering on this large poster advertising the 1970 Renault 12.

We celebrated George Lazenby's birthday earlier. I personally believe he is one of the best Bond and On Her Majesty's Secret Service ranks high among the best Bond movies. Rare 2 panel Japanese poster with Art by Robert McGinnis and Frank McCarthy.

More 60's spy beauty with a great painting by Enrico de Seta for the 1966 Italian Eurospy movie Agente segreto 070 Thunderbay Mission Grasshopper.

Few days ago, I had the honor and privilege of attending Robert Plant and Alison Krauss' last show of their tour in NYC. In spite of his advanced age, the Rock god still has all his voice and produces the most sublime music all restrained and perfectly played. Here he is on the concert poster for his 2011 Berkeley show.

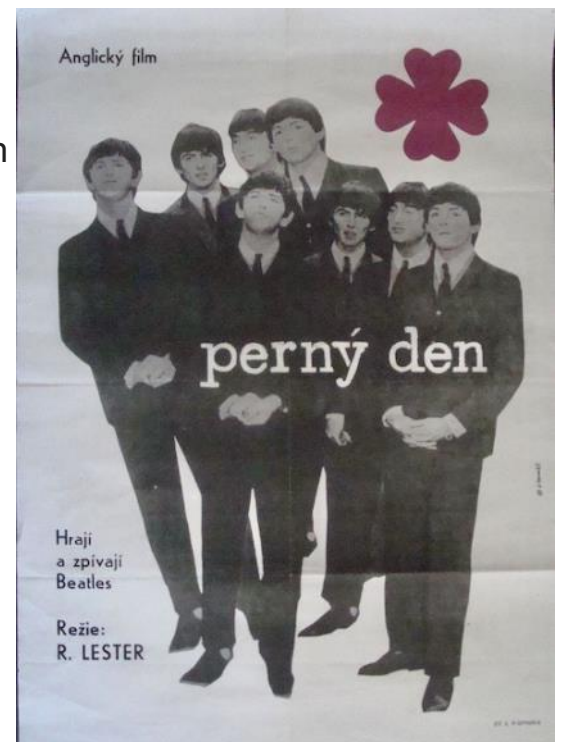

Paul McCartney is another legend and has reached 80. He may not have all of his voice but still delivers a hell of a show filled with his huge solo catalogue and Beatles' classics. A Hard Day's Night original Czech poster.

We remain in Eastern Europe with a rare Hungarian poster for one of the best spaghetti Westerns ever filmed, My Name Is Nobody.

Among the concert poster series, the Boston Tea Party posters are very hard to find as printed in very small quantities. Here is the ultra rare poster for John Mayall's 1971 Boston show.

Unique terrifying Artwork for the Japanese release of Halloween 2 (retitled there as Boogey Man).

Christina Lindberg is an icon of early Sexploitation movies but she is mainly known in her role as the one eyed revenge killer in Thriller \(A Cruel Picture\) also known as They Call Her One Eye. Rare Italian insert sized poster.

Colors and power go well together. Commercial poster painted by Alex Ross featuring the original Captain Marvel renamed Shazam in the late 60's to avoid confusion with Marvel Comics' Captain Marvel.

Another superhero but of a sexier style with the 1968 Mexican cult classic Batwoman directed by Ramon Cardona. The Turkish poster here sports a unique painting and was released in the early 80's. The poster is linen backed.

Lovely ladies playing together on the Italian poster for the 1976 French Sexploitation movie, Maidens Of The Dormitory \(les demoiselles du pensionnat\). Art by Rino Ferrari.

Another modern era concert poster designed by the genial Rex Ray for Portishead's 2011 Berkeley show.

A very rare original Japanese Ad poster for the Sci-Fi classic Forbidden Planet.

Another rarity is the Belgian poster designed for the mid 60's rerelease of Mon Oncle, my favorite Jacques Tati film.

Rarities always with the black and white variant poster of the 1971 Hell's Angels Benefit concert designed (and hand signed) by Randy Tuten.

Lips...Pulpous, erotic, gracious...Made for tasting and kissing...Very large French Grande poster (rolled!) for the 1972 US erotic movie, Sugar Cookies.

21 years later, New York City never forgets the loss of lives and the skyline. Despite the city delving into chaos and violence, Downtown has been rebuilt and I urge you all to visit the 9/11 pool memorial which is a place of serenity inspiring remembrance. 1980 US Tourism poster advertising visits to New York City.
