eMoviePoster.com's very special auction of 163 vintage scripts, 215 negatives, 115 transparencies & 30 35mm slides started Sunday May 21st at 3 PM CT at <https://www.emovieposter.com/agallery/15.html> and ends June 11th at the same time!

Why does this special auction include BOTH vintage scripts AND vintage negatives, transparencies, and 35mm slides

Instead of doing a special auction of SOLELY vintage scripts and ANOTHER special auction of SOLELY negatives, transparencies, and 35mm slides and we realized it made far more sense to run both these special auctions at the same time, with the vintage scripts running first, and the negatives, transparencies, and 35mm slides running right after them, this combining the two into this one extra special auction!

About the part of the auction containing 163 vintage scripts

All of the 163 scripts we are offering were created by studios. Most were used during the filming of a movie or TV show, and some were created after the production was finished. None of the scripts are "copy scripts", the kind sold by shops on Hollywood Blvd., which are copied from vintage scripts. Many of the scripts we are auctioning come from a specific actor or crew member, and we always identify this on the specific auction.

About the part of the auction containing 215 vintage negatives, 115 vintage transparencies, and 30 vintage sets of 35mm slides

This is a very special auction of extremely rare vintage negatives and transparencies of various sizes and 35mm slides (some contain single items, and many contain multiples, some with high quantities). EVERY single item in this auction is either a "camera original" (meaning it was the actual negative that was in the camera when the photographer took the picture) OR it is "studio issued" (meaning it was created by the studio and sent to theaters and movie outlets),. Every auction clearly identifies which they are, and there are no items being auctioned that are not either "camera originals" or "studio issue" (and a HIGH percentage of the negatives are" camera originals"). We have divided them by type and size.

Also note that every one of the 215 auctions of negatives have had the negatives scanned expertly to create a positive image. Each of those auctions show an image of the negative as it actually appears and ALSO an image of a positive image of the negative(s) in that auction. BUT REALIZE THE WINNING BIDDER OF THOSE AUCTIONS WILL RECEIVE ONE OR MORE PHOTOGRAPHIC NEGATIVES (in some cases, the studio or our consignor also made a positive print of the negative (s), and the auctions with those are clearly noted).

In the case of transparencies, almost all of them were scanned individually, and we only also photographed them if there was a sticker or snipe on their sleeve. In the case of 35mm slides, almost all of them were photographed on a light box, and we scanned just one (or a small number) of those slides (and that is clearly identified on those auctions), so you can see just how high quality those slides are!

All of the positive images on these auctions have an "eMoviePoster.com" watermark over it. ONLY the winner of this auction will, on request, be sent UNWATERMARKED scan(s) of the items in the auction they won, which will both save them the time and expense of scanning them themselves, and also allow them to make positive prints of the items they purchased (by giving that scan to a printer, or creating it from the unwatermarked scan on their own computer). In the case of the 35mm slides, only one or a few were scanned individually (as noted above). The winners of those auctions can, upon request, have whatever unwatermarked images we have (if they were scanned, we will send unwatermarked scans (of course, only if they were scanned), and if they were photographed, we will send unwatermarked photographs, and if there is a combination of scans and photographs, we will send what we took).

PLEASE REALIZE THAT NONE OF THESE ARE PHOTOS, AND ALL ARE PHOTOGRAPHIC NEGATIVES, TRANSPARENCIES, OR SLIDES (although a very few have positive prints included, which is clearly noted), SO ONLY BID ON THEM IF WHAT YOU ARE WANTING TO BUY IS THE PHOTOGRAPHIC NEGATIVES, TRANSPARENCIES, OR SLIDES BEING AUCTIONED! But please also realize that most of these are many, many times more scarce than vintage photos that were made from them, and in the case of the many "camera originals", THEY ARE TRULY "ONE-OF-A-KIND"!

Dear Posterophiles,

Having recently rewatched two movies about Las Vegas Showgirls: Showgirls, one of the all-time "badly filmed on purpose" big production movies and then The Grasshopper, the 1969 drama starring the ever gorgeous Jacqueline Bisset, I thought it would be a good time to reappraise a dying Artform which has now nearly fully disappeared from the Vegas Strip hotels, i.e the Showgirls Revue.

The first Las Vegas Showgirl revue appeared in 1952 at the Sands Casino and the first Topless revue, Minsky Follies, was introduced a few years later in 1957 at the Stardust Hotel. However it really is in 1958 that the Strip became the Revue capital of the world with the Lido de Paris show debuting at the Stardust followed by the Folies Bergere show at the Tropicana one year later in 1959.

Those shows were exported straight from Paris which invented the Cabaret / Music-Hall revues: Les Folies Bergere (1886), Le moulin rouge (1889), Le Casino de Paris (first theater of its kind opened in 1730 but hosted Cabaret shows from the late 1880s), Le Lido de Paris (1946) and Le Crazy Horse de Paris (1951) are all worldwide famous names, synonymous with beautiful women, elaborate choreographed shows and lavish decors.

Showgirls revues ranged from the cheap in sordid cabarets / Bars to the luxurious shows in Paris and Las Vegas hotels cited above. They have been a numerous source of visual attractiveness on posters advertising those shows as well as Las Vegas travel / airlines posters and many movies (Documentaries or Dramas).

THIS WEEK'S BLOG (click here) features many posters from those categories in 10 different entries which we invite you to browse and enjoy.

One of them included in the Blog is this fabulous Western Airlines poster (circa 1974) advertising flights to Las Vegas printed with day-glo inks.

WHAT'S NEW THIS WEEK?

* NEW ITEMS: The 2023 SPRING COLLECTION with its 779 items is available in the NEW PRODUCTS section. Enjoy another curated selection of 20 posters that follow.

Last week on May 4th (May The 4th Be With You), we celebrated the Star Wars saga so here is a limited edition print created by Joe Corroney for the Star Wars Celebration IV gathering in 2007.

Science-Fiction was a big theme in the 70's including in the 1973 off-Broadway show (Not a showgirls one though) called Warp. The show didn't last very long but is very much sought after by comic fans due to its incredible poster designed by Neal Adams. This is the super rare large sized version.

Even if he is nearing 77, Sylvester Stallone is working as hard as ever. Sadly he doesn't appear in Creed 3, the last episode of the Rocky franchise so let's bring him back here with the uniquely designed ex-Yugoslavian poster for the first Rocky movie.

Even with gloves, fists can be deadly weapons...Still nothing compared to the real Deadly Weapons that Chesty Morgan displays in the atrociously bad 1974 British sexploitation movie. The original British Quad poster is extremely rare

From mammaries to mammals...Here is an adorable Koala on a 1978 vintage travel poster enjoining us to fly Qantas Airlines and taste their delicious on board meals .

More mammals with this superb black panther next to the no less superb Meiko Kaji on the magnificent and very rare poster for the 4th episode of the Female Scorpion 701 Prisoner series.

Woman and animal again yet not in a friendly relationship as the gorgeous Barbara Bach is being snacked on by the Great Alligator on the large French poster for the 1979 Italian horror movie. Art by Michel Landi and Vanni Tealdi.

Another large (2 panel) poster featuring a buxom woman ensnared with an animal is this superb painting by Mario Piovano/Studio Paradiso for the Italian release of the 1971 Horror satanic movie Werewolves on Wheels. A Gallery exclusive.

As colorful yet less horrific is this Variant limited edition print for Alice Coltrane's seminal album Journey In Satchidananda.

Eternal feminine elegance embodied by Audrey Hepburn on the iconic image used for the 1969 Japanese rerelease of Breakfast At Tiffany's.

Gorgeous ladies with less clothes this time - as only sporting paint - advertising the Swiss ski brand Kneissel circa 1971-1972. Cheeky and kitschy!

Less cheeky but certainly as Kitsch and campier is the 1966 Batman movie starring Adam West taking his caped crusader role from the TV series to the big screen. Here is the extremely rare half sheet poster.

Kitsch and fun are two adjectives defining Elvis Presley's Sixties movies including 1967's Easy Come Easy Go where he shakes, sings and scubas. The Japanese poster is one of the rarest Elvis posters to find.

Sixties Music and colors again with this rare commercial poster with day-Glo inks printed for the Butterfield Blues Band appearance at the Atlanta Music Festival in 1969

Vivid colors encore with the super rare small sized Japanese Ad poster with unique design for Mon Oncle, the masterful 1958 French comedy directed by and starring Jacques Tati.

Another famous trench coat wearer is Peter Falk when he portrayed the famous Inspector Columbo for 7 + years on TV. Very rare Italian poster for the 1978 theatrical release of two TV episodes, Ransom For A Dead Man.

Columbo knew how to perfectly remain silent for most of each episode. A quality which should have been used more by the civilians militaries during WW2 as this fantastic original 1943 propaganda poster, Bits Of Careless Talk advises us. Art by Steven Dohanos. The poster is already linen backed.

John Wayne often portrayed War heroes including in the 1957 movie Jet Pilot. Unique art for the small sized Japanese Ad poster (one of many new John Wayne posters added).

Peter Gabriel is about to start his new world Tour. Here is on his first post-Genesis solo tour with the original large French concert poster for his 1977 Paris date.

And we leave each other with another piece of Sixties era beauty with the circa 1964 Continental Airlines poster advertising flights to Denver with a cropped up image of a skier. The poster is already linen backed.
