There are 553 lots dedicated to the seventh art that Aste Bolaffi experts have gathered from prestigious private collections: from French pre-cinema to an important section of posters for Neorealist titles, from westerns to noirs, and even animated movies. This is a rich catalog full of extraordinary twists and highlights.

Fans of great classics cannot pass up the 2 very rare 4-sheets illustrated by Capitani for Gilda with Rita Hayworth: both are featured in the two styles made for the promotion of the film's first release in Italian theaters. For lovers of Disney animated classics, on the other hand, there is the first edition of the playbill for Dumbo.

The selection of Italian cinema in addition to some great classics illustrated by top Italian poster artists such as Brini, Ballester and Martinati, features a corpus devoted entirely to the Prince of laughter: Totà, an icon of Italian show business and cinema whose 125th birth anniversary falls this year.

MOVIE POSTER ARCHIVES Online Charity Auction November 27 - December 4

MOVIE POSTER ARCHIVES

Movie Poster Archives is the only non-profit organization dedicated to the digitization, documentation and preservation of movie posters, movie stills, and related movie accessories. Over the past eight years, MPA has received over 3 million pieces as tax deductible donations from collectors, dealers, individual donors, estates and businesses.

MPA AUCTIONS

Movie Poster Archives is honoring our mission to make people happy--and making space by auctioning duplicates and/or excess items not needed for our programs. The vaults are open to fund our programs for the preservation and study of movie paper, exhibits, and education.

Auction prices are determined by the number of items in each lot, NOT on a pre-determined value based on vintage, popularity, etc. For example, smaller lots start at just $3 for the entire lot while larger collectors lots start at $10. Every item is inspected and evaluated by our archivists Ed and Susan Poole. Their descriptions clearly state what's known about each item.

CURRENT AUCTION

Our current auction features over 1,000 lots and will end on December 4th. A sneak preview begins on Monday, November 27th. You can view the entire auction HERE.

eMoviePoster.com's December Major Auction November 28 - December 19

We had a VERY odd "problem" with this auction! When our Halloween auction ended just four short weeks ago, we only had around 500 items consigned for this auction, far under the usual 1,000 or so we have had in past years.

So we scheduled it all to run on a single day, starting on November 28th and ending 3 weeks later on December 19th (usually we schedule this to run in three parts).

BUT THEN THE CONSIGNMENTS STARTED FLOODING IN, SOMETIMES TEN AND TWENTY TUBES OR BOXES IN A SINGLE DAY!

So we ended up with 1,296 items (940 linenbacked posters, and 356 non-linen) and it is FILLED to overflowing with super-rarities of every type, (including LOTS of "non-movie" posters), sensational lobby cards, and SO much more!

We could go on and on telling all about it, but instead you can see for yourself here!

And even MORE remarkable, we also have around 1,800 auctions of "flat" items that starts November 30th and around 1,000 auctions of "rolled" items that starts December 3rd, and both of those are both filled with lots of great rarities as well.

PREPARING ALL THESE GREAT AUCTIONS MADE US BUSIER THAN WE HAVE BEEN IN MANY YEARS, BUT WE WILL ADMIT I COULD HAVE FAR WORSE PROBLEMS!

And we promise you these will be auctions you won't soon forget!

MOVIE ART CELEBRATES 25TH ANNIVERSARY

CONGRATULATIONS to Marcel Elsener on reaching the 25th anniversary of Movie Art. To commemorate this event, Marcel was featured in Film Guide, a monthly magazine found in every good cinema foyer in Switzerland. Here's a rough translation of Marcel's interview:

MOVIE POSTER BECOME THE RARE GOOD

MOVIEART opened in Zurich 25 years ago, the first store for film posters in Switzerland. Today the owner Marcel Elsener (60) runs an assortment of over 10,000 posters, but also film characters, replicas or original autographs. The passionate film fan looks for us back into the past and into the Future.

FILM GUIDE: What is your motivation?
MOVIE ART started back then?

Marcel Elsener: I worked at the film distributor Universal Pictures and noticed that there was a great demand for film posters among cinema audiences. At that time, these were very popular Unlike the soundtrack or the DVD, exclusively for Printed for promotional purposes. I've always collected posters myself, but had to go to Paris or London to get some buy. Finally I imported the posters and opened on November 5, 1998 the shop.

What fascinates you personally about film posters?

It is decorative, evokes emotions and memories. In addition, are it's true works of art. They have always been more interesting to me than music posters or landscape pictures. If someone too Visitors come and you immediately have something to talk about.

You know everyone. What is your favorite poster?

My favorites are METROPOLIS (1927), a timeless classic, IN THE MOOD FOR LOVE (2001), very aesthetic, or GRAND BUDAPEST HOTEL (2014) with its lovely colors and all the details.

And which is the top seller?

That was and still is PULP FICTION (1994). The motif is with Uma Thurman absolutely succeeded and the film is cult. The perfect Combination.

Has there ever been a funny one in the 25 years? special situation?

Once Matula actor Claus Theo Gärtner from EIN FALL came FOR TWO went into the store and was served by my employee. After the store closed, I filled the rack with postcards and discovered his autograph card inside. He gave it to us apparently left unnoticed.

What does the future look like? In the cinema foyers, the posters are being replaced by digital screens...

Yes, the print runs are already getting smaller and the posters are getting smaller will probably soon disappear completely. I think there will still be demand for the original posters that we had to date enlarge. Original film posters are becoming a rare commodity.

And what happened to Claus Theo Gärtner's card? Did she find a buyer?

No, I have it in the archives. (laughs)

MARCEL ELSENER:

«FILMPOSTER WERDEN ZUM RAREN GUT»

Vor 25 Jahren eröffnete in Zürich MOVIEART, der erste Laden für Filmplakate in der Schweiz. Heute führt der Besitzer Marcel Elsener (60) ein Sortiment von über 10'000 Postern, aber auch Filmfiguren, Replikas oder original Autogrammen. Der leidenschaftliche Filmfan blickt für uns zurück in die Vergangenheit und in die Zukunft.

Von Philipp Postmann

INTERVIEW

FILM GUIDE: Aus welcher Motivation heraus haben Sie MOVIE ART damals gestartet?

Marcel Elsener: Ich arbeitete beim Filmverleih Universal Pictures und merkte, dass beim Kinopublikum eine grosse Nachfrage nach Filmplakaten besteht. Diese wurden damals, ganz im Gegensatz zum Soundtrack oder der DVD, ausschliesslich für Werbezwecke gedruckt. Ich selber sammelte schon immer Plakate, musste aber nach Paris oder London gehen, um welche zu kaufen. Schliesslich importierte ich die Plakate und eröffnete am 5. November 1998 den Shop.

Was fasziniert Sie persönlich am Filmplakat?

Es ist dekorativ, weckt Emotionen und Erinnerungen. Zudem sind es wahre Kunstwerke. Sie waren für mich schon immer interessanter als Musik Poster oder Landschaftsbilder. Wenn jemand zu Besuch kommt, hat man sofort ein Gesprächsthema.

Sie kennen ja alle. Was ist Ihr Lieblingsposter?

Meine Lieblinge sind METROPOLIS (1927), ein zeitloser Klassiker, IN THE MOOD FOR LOVE (2001), sehr ästhetisch, oder GRAND BUDAPEST HOTEL (2014) mit seinen lieblichen Farben und all den Details.

Und welches ist der Topseller?

Das war und ist bis heute PULP FICTION (1994). Das Motiv ist mit Uma Thurman absolut gelungen und der Film ist Kult. Die perfekte Kombination.

Gab es in den 25 Jahren auch einmal eine lustige oder spezielle Situation?

Einmal kam Matula-Darsteller Claus Theo Gärtner aus EIN FALL FÜR ZWEI in den Laden und wurde durch meine Mitarbeiterin bedient. Nach Ladenschluss füllte ich den Ständer mit den Postkarten auf und entdeckte darin seine Autogrammkarte. Die hat er uns offenbar unbemerkt hinterlassen.

Wie sieht denn die Zukunft aus? In den Kinofoyers werden die Poster ja durch digitale Screens ersetzt...

Ja, die Auflagen werden jetzt schon kleiner und die Poster werden vermutlich bald ganz verschwinden. Ich denke, das wird die Nachfrage nach den Originalplakaten, die man bis heute hatte, noch vergrössern. Original Filmplakate werden zum raren Gut.

Und was wurde aus der Karte von Claus Theo Gärtner? fand die einen Käufer oder eine Käuferin?

Nein, die habe ich im Archiv. (lacht)

Dear Posterophiles,

Welcome to this new BLOG/Newsletter written in the wee hours upon my return from Tokyo where I literally bent my body in cave-like shops, unearthing many extremely rare Japanese posters which will be presented in January.

The current various conflicts (Middle east, Ukraine, nagorni-Karabakh..) not only create destruction of lives and livelihood but also tear the fabrics of our societies bringing back too many divisive dark human traits which were for too long kept under what we thought were solid moral locks.

Since we can't seem to agree on much these days, I thought we could ALL unite about two constant themes that ALL humans can relate to: SEX AND HUMOR!!!

Yes SEX and Humor.

The Gallery prouds itself by offering a wide array of genre related posters including a massive selection of Sexploitation movie posters. While several are clearly explicit - and we do not apologize for those - most are illustration / design centric and a few of them are also obviously FUN.

One can say anything about the Sex Industry (vile, crass, pornographic, exploitative, destructive, addictive, immoral...) but through the years its main producers clearly embraced all new trends and technologies especially the digital ones - unlike the Music and Movie industries which fought rearguard fights to preserve what they thought was their given domains.

So yes the Porn producers are everything BUT stupid as they displayed tons of cunning smarts, surfing and jumping on trends as soon as they appear...and also have a clear sense of humor when re-claiming General Culture's icons (Literature, movies, comics...) to transform these well known and loved oeuvres into fleshier versions.

THIS WEEK'S BLOG (click here) presents 10 of those erotic spoof movies revisiting cult heroes and novels (Fairy tales, Zorro, Superman, Star Wars...) morning them into sex parodies with clever and cheeky posters that we hope will make you smile.

Here's one of them, the small sized US poster for the 1985 Star Wars spoof titled Sex Wars....As the subtitle says, May The Farce Be with You!!!

WHAT'S NEW THIS WEEK?

- NEW ITEMS: The 2023 FALL COLLECTION with its 744 items is available in the NEW PRODUCTS section. Enjoy another curated selection of 20 posters below...chosen during jet lag fueled early morning hours.

Since we are talking about spoofs, let's mention one of the greatest Horror spoof movies, From Dusk Till Dawn directed by Robert Rodriguez and co-written by Quentin Tarantino. They initially asked Comic Book Art legend Frank Frazetta to design the poster but for some complicated reasons, his amazing Art was not chosen in the end. In 2022, the original Art was finally used in a very limited edition print (only 70 copies) for our immense pleasure.

Sex and humor pairs well with any genre really including the Sports movies. Great cartoon Art style for the British release of the cult 1984 ski film, Hot Dog The Movie.

The sheer presence and grace of Women enhance any visuals. Proof with this beautiful Art Nouveau style poster designed by Bob Masse for the 1977 edition of the Trips Music Festival in Vancouver.

One of the greatest erotic movies is an Anime one...Belladonna Of Sadness is a masterpiece of animation - as disturbing as it is beautiful - created by Eiichi Yamamoto. Here is the super rare complete set of 14 Swiss Lobby Cards.

Raquel Welch was (still is) the sexiest woman ever yet never disrobed in any of her movies (she only did so much later for a Playboy spread). Here she is in full bikini fur glory on the very rare British poster designed for the 1977 rerelease of the movie that rocketed her to worldwide fame, One Million Years B.C.. The poster is already linen backed.

The mid 60's were an era of creativity and amazing design. It is also the time where the Lambretta scooters truly became a status item thanks to the Mod movement in England. Here is a very rare original Italian advertising poster (circa 1965) for the scooter brand featuring a flower vending girl.

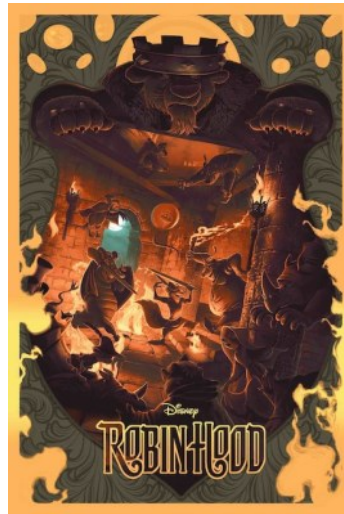

Better than the scooter were the Batmobile and Batcopter as shown in the cult 1966 camp Superhero film, Batman the Movie. The original Italian fotobusta poster is as colorful as it is rare.

From DC superheroes to Marvel Comics ones all gathered on the super rare poster drawn by Jim Steranko included with the very first FOOM (Friends Of Ol' Marvel) magazine along with all the original cards. This set is impossible to find complete and even has the original mailing cover with hulk hand signed by Steranko. A Gallery exclusive.

Cartoon genius again with a brand new limited edition by Juan Ramos reimagining Walt Disney's Robin Hood. This is the variant print.

From Animation to Fantasy with the rare large French poster for the 1981 Fantasy classic, Clash Of The Titans, with unique Art by the best French movie poster

Two true musical titans are Jazz legends Miles Davis and Oscar Peterson playing together in 1960 in Berlin 1960. The original concert poster designed by Gunther Kieser (and Hans Michel) is among the rarest to find especially in this Near Mint condition. A museum piece.

More titanic icons with Shintaro Katsu and Toshiro Mifune battling in the 20th episode of the Zatoichi series, Zatoichi Meets Yojimbo. This image is for the style B poster which I had never seen. Very very rare and in gorgeous condition.

Good things come in pairs indeed. Very rare half sheet combo poster for the 1968 rerelease of James Bond's first two movies, Dr. No and From Russia With Love.

War is ugly....And kids are always the first victims, beheaded, oven toasted or bombed. Yet they are always used as an emotional magnet to raise money in times of war as shown on this vintage 1944 WW2 Propaganda poster, To Have And To Hold, promoting the purchase of War Bonds.

Let's move to shinier times, 1969, with the very rare original Italian poster for Sharon Tate's last movie, the 1969 comedy, 12 + 1 \(The Twelve Chairs\). This poster is printed with day-glo inks making it even more collectible

From naked bodies to naked design with this stunning original poster for the 1969 Mother Earth shows at the Boston Tea Party in 1970 created by Eric Engstrom. The Boston Tea Party posters are not only much rarer than their Fillmore counterparts but were also designed with a very minimalist style making them even more collectible.

Nature can be beautiful or truly savage and furious when seeking revenge. That is the theme of the Jaws ersatz, Orca, starring Charlotte Rampling. The Japanese style C poster boasts a unique painting making it extremely sought after.

More Horror beauty with a fabulous painting (by ?) gracing the large Italian 2 panel poster for the 1966 Hammer Films Horror movie, The Plague Of The Zombies.

After all those emotions, let's take some time off and recline in the sun thinking about all the great posters we have seen. Original 1960 travel poster for the Dutch airlines company KLM, advertising flights to the Mediterranean Riviera.
