It is also NOW time to consign to our December Major Auction!

Given the sensational results of our August Major Auction (and the VERY lackluster results at other auctions held close to ours), I can't see why ANYONE with quality items they have considered consigning would not want to have them included in this very special auction! And unlike every other major auction we DON'T have a big stack of supposedly sold items here to put back into auction, so we are "starting from scratch", just like always (the 25 items pictured here are among the very first December Major consignments received)!

We have made one very important change to consigning. We have had the rule about $50+ (in nice condition) or $100+ (in lesser condition) for over 3 months now, and it is working out great, getting low value items out of our auctions. THE CHANGE IS THAT LINENBACKED ITEMS MUST BE SOLIDLY $100+ (in nice condition), and solidly $200+ in lesser condition.

Our last several major auctions have had 100 or 200 much lesser posters that were solely included because they were linenbacked, and we don't want this anymore AT ALL. So bear this in mind before sending consignments.

And know that what we DO want is really rare and desirable items, like the ones our August Major Auction was full of! If you have items you think make sense, contact us today with what you have, and you may see your items in our next preview ad!

CURATOR'S COLLECTION

As the days grow shorter and the air turns crisp, Friday nights light up with the timeless rituals of high school football. From the first whistle to the last cheer, these photographs capture the energy, pride, and community spirit that made autumn evenings under the lights unforgettable.

LINED UP AND LOCKED IN

Lined up against a brick wall, helmets strapped tight and eyes locked forward, these young players embody the grit and anticipation of game day. Their determined expressions capture the intensity and pride that defined Friday night football traditions.

MORE PHOTOS

High school football surged in popularity after World War II, becoming a centerpiece of small-town and suburban Friday nights.

Cheerleading stunts grew more acrobatic in the 1960s and '70s, evolving from simple chants into athletic performances that demanded balance, teamwork, and precision.

HIGH-FLYING SPIRIT:

With five teammates lined up below, one cheerleader prepares to leap in a daring stunt that captures the athleticism and energy of the sidelines. Stunts like this turned halftime and timeouts into their own kind of spectacle, fueling the crowd's excitement as much as the plays on the field.

LESSONS BEYOND THE FIELD

With whistle in hand and focus in his eyes, this coach at Grosse Pointe led his team through drills and discipline. His stance says it all—football was never just about plays, but about teaching resilience and teamwork.

Many iconic coaches started at the high school level, where Friday night games served as proving grounds for both players and leaders.

The placekicker position wasn't common in American football until the 1930s—by the '50s and '80s, it became essential to the game.

PRACTICE UNDER THE LIGHTS

Captured mid-motion, this kicker launches into a towering kick under the stadium lights. The empty bleachers behind him remind us of the countless hours of practice that shaped each Friday night performance.

SOUNDTRACK OF THE SEASON

No Friday night was complete without the marching band, their music weaving through the crowd's chants and cheers. These band members, caught mid-song, remind us that football nights were as much about community celebration as competition.

By the 20th century, marching bands had become staples of football culture, with halftime shows evolving into elaborate traditions.

This Month's Showcase

Goodwood Revival is coming (12th to 14th September)

For the petrolheads and classic car enthusiasts among us, the Goodwood Revival is a very special event. It's not only the world's greatest historic motor racing event with pre-1966 race cars battling it out on the track, but it's also the only motor racing event to be held entirely in period dress. 150,000 spectators attend every year, all of them dressed as if attending one of the Goodwood motor races when the track was first opened in 1945 until it closed in 1966. Mods, rockers, fashionistas, forces personnel, vicars and mechanics.

So why am I talking about this? Because I've been going every year since the Revival started in 1998. I own the MGA police car that has acted as the course car for most of that time and my 1942 Harley Davidson has also played a part. More recently, I've taken a stand in the shopping area there for the last fifteen years so, if you happen to be going, do come and see me. We're on stand 263 in the 'Over-the-Road' section (near the beer tent if you want a convenient landmark). I'm offering a 10% discount to members of the Goodwood Road Racing Club (GRRC), the Harley Davidson Fortyfivers club and anyone that reads this and comes to see me over the Revival weekend.

With around 4,000 posters on the website, I can't show more than about 5% of my stock at the event but listed below are some that I plan to take. If there's something here that you like, you can buy it now in the usual way or just reserve it and pick up at Goodwood next month. If there's anything else on the website that isn't on my Goodwood list, get in touch and I'll bring it along for you to see there.

Please note: Bear in mind that I'm always looking for collections to sell on consignment. If you are considering selling, get in touch on 07971 797386. The returns to you are typically 50% higher than selling at auction after all the fees are taken into account (look in my FAQ section for an explanation of how the numbers work) so it's a no brainer if you're not in a hurry.

RECENT RESTORATIONS

EXPERIENCE

I have been linen backing for over two years, after I retired. I have completed over 100 poster restorations for Morris Everett. I started this business with the help of Morris. He gave me posters to learn the process; and once perfected, I gained his confidence to back his poster collection. I was an executive manager because of my constant process improvement skills and transferred those skills in my linen backing business.

PROCESS

With regards to linen backing. I linen back using conservation techniques. What does that mean? It means I wash EVERY poster, first step is to deacidfy, this opens up the paper fibers to allow the paper bleach to remove stains, toning, water damage, etc. The poster is then mounted on acid free Japanese paper, and 12oz. Canvas. Once dry the poster is then touched up with water color pencils. The process is fully reversible.

PRICING

I have set up my pricing so that almost any poster can be linen backed. My pricing includes a full bath (photo on right shows water after a poster bath) and deacidification of the poster. It includes a light bleaching to remove the mold, and toning to bring back the colors and the whiteness of the paper, then a PH balance bath to neatralize the paper. The poster is then mounted on acid free Japanese Masa paper and mounted on 12 oz. cotton backing. The price also includes minor tape removal, and water color touch ups along the fold lines. All anyone has to do is contact me for pricing.

Did you know about the incredible just-published coffee table hardcover book on Japanese Akira Kurosawa movie posters?

A wonderful Japanese collector, Yoshikazu Inoue, who has been collecting Japanese Akira Kurosawa movie posters for over THIRTY YEARS, has just published a coffee table full-color hardcover book, and it is now available for purchase!

He received full cooperation from Kurosawa Production, Toho, Shochiku, KADOKAWA, and Mifune Productions, and this allowed for the publication of this authorized book. All the posters included are either from the author's collection (or with the help of various collectors) and most of the posters were created when the films were first released in Japan.

ALL the text, including the explanations is presented in both Japanese and English, and the author "takes pride in saying that therefore it is a book that fans of Kurosawa's films worldwide can enjoy".

Here is the press release announcing this book:

AKIRA KUROSAWA FILM POSTER COLLECTION
Release date: Wednesday, August 27th

A powerful B4-sized book! Includes Japanese original posters from the time of release for all 30 of Kurosawa's films. This dream project, which had never been published until now, has finally come true with the full cooperation of Kurosawa Productions, Toho, and other companies. From his debut film, "Sanshiro Sugata," to his last film, "Madadayo," posters created at the time of the release of all 30 of Kurosawa's directorial films are gathered together in one place. "Rashomon", "Ikiru", "Seven Samurai", "The Hidden Fortress", "Yojimbo", "High and Low", and "Red Beard" etc. The excitement and enthusiasm of the audience who saw the posters at movie theaters and on the streets at the time is brought back to life in the present day with the powerful B4-sized, full-color book.

A total of over 300 images! With the cooperation of poster collectors both in Japan and abroad, we have published a number of valuable versions, including the 1943 first release poster of "Sanshiro Sugata," which has been said to be a phantom until now, and ultra large posters at the first release of his representative works such as "Seven Samurai", "Yojimbo", and "Sanjuro" and much much more. The total number of items published is over 300! Many valuable promotional materials are also published.

A poster book that is enjoyable to read as well In addition to the posters at the time of release, many valuable promotional materials such as press sheets and lobby cards are published. From the text published at the time, this book makes it clear how Kurosawa's works were promoted at the time of their release. Text is written in both Japanese and English. In addition to the poster commentary text, all texts are written in both Japanese and English, including commentary by Akira Kurosawa researcher. It is also a perfect gift for Kurosawa fans over the world.
