ZOMBIES ARE COMING! ALREADY HERE!

For some reason, we all LOVE to be scared. Society seems to go through cycles of horror, from gargoyles, mummies, to werewolves and vampires a few years ago.

The latest craze seems to be zombies! They are all over the movies. Just in 2015, there are about 70 movies scheduled for release with a zombie theme. Some of the include Maze Runner: Scorch Trials, Extinction, Scouts Guide to the Zombie Apocalypse, Walking Deceased, and Maggie.

Most seemed to be destined for the low budget academy awards, such as Zombie Cats From Mars, Invasion of the Not Quite Dead, Zombie Pizza, and Granny of the Dead.

Even television is flooded with The Walking Dead, Fear the Walking Dead, ZNation, iZombie, The Returned, Resurrection, Empire of the Dead, In the Flesh and several others.

Not to be caught up in the recent craze and with Halloween quickly approaching, we wanted to show a wild variety of zombies that have been popular through the years, such major classics as Red Neck Zombies, Hard Rock Zombies, Orgy of the Dead, Die You Zombie Bastards and even Zombies Strippers. And, of course, the New Orleans shot classic Zombie! Vs. Mardi Gras. (Print available in our store HERE.)

Here is our tribute to Zombies. Grab a cup of coffee, put the video to full screen and enjoy these GREAT classic movie posters of – ZOMBIES

International Superstar Sylvester Stallone Makes Iconic Items From His Famous Films Available To Fans At Upcoming Auction

Props and costumes from Stallone's famous films such as "Rocky," "Rambo" and "The Expendables," along with some of his personal items will be sold at auction in Los Angeles, October 14-15, 2015, by Heritage Auctions with a portion of the proceeds going to charity

LOS ANGELES — Imagine the thrill of owning Rocky Balboa's boxing gloves or John Rambo's army jacket.

One of the biggest movie stars of the world, actor, writer and director Sylvester Stallone — the only actor with the distinction of opening a number one film across five decades — will offer fans a chance to bid on more than a thousand iconic costumes and props from his famous action films, including the "Rocky," "Rambo," and "The Expendables" franchises.

A portion of the proceeds from the auction, to be conducted by Heritage Auctions, will be donated to charities and organizations that assist veterans and wounded United States servicemen and servicewomen.

Regarding his consigned items, Stallone said: "I thought other people would really appreciate the memorabilia. So, rather than keep it all in storage I thought I should just pass everything on," he explained in an interview for the Fall 2015 issue of Heritage's The Intelligent Collector magazine.

There will be public exhibits in Dallas, New York and Los Angeles this summer and early fall of selected items consigned by Stallone. The auction will be held live and online by Heritage in Los Angeles on October 14 and 15, 2015.

"There are more than 1,400 props, costumes and personal items consigned by Mr. Stallone that will be available to his fans worldwide. He is an international superstar, and these items include some of the iconic, cultural symbols of clothing and props from his most famous and loved action films, the 'Rocky' and 'Rambo' series," said Greg Rohan, President of Heritage Auctions.

Among the items that will be offered are:

From the Academy-Award© winning 1976 film, "Rocky," the black leather jacket he wore in his role as Rocky Balboa and Rocky Marciano's boxing glove pendant trainer Mickey Goodmill (actor Burgess Meredith) gave to Rocky.

The boxing gloves Stallone used as Rocky and the World Heavyweight Championship Belt he won in "Rocky II" in 1979, and Rocky's "tiger" jacket worn in that film.

Rocky's boxing trunks from the match against Clubber Lang (Mr. T) in the 1982 movie, "Rocky III."

Stallone's screen worn, white "Balboa" boxing robe from the 1985 film, "Rocky IV."

A U.S. Army flag patch jacket Stallone wore as John Rambo in 1982 in the first film in the Rambo series, "First Blood."

Fans can also bid on costumes and props used by Stallone in "Judge Dredd" (1995), the recent "The Expendables" movies and Rocky's Harley Davidson motorcycle that appeared in both "Rocky III" and "Rocky V" (1990).

Public previews of all the auction items will be at the Hyatt Regency Century Plaza in Los Angeles, October 12 - 14, with the auction conducted there on October 14 and 15.

"The dates and locations of the public exhibits of selected items in the United States, Asia and Europe will be announced in the coming weeks," said Rohan. "We anticipate a tremendous response by Mr. Stallone's fans around the world."

The FIRST EVER ...

Silent Studio Directory

During the silent era, the film industry was BOOMING, AND, it was simple to get into the film industry. NO sound equipment, NO studio and NO experience were needed. Scrape up enough money for a camera and cameraman and you were in business. THOUSANDS jumped aboard trying to make their fortune in this new fledgling industry. As talent emerged and the industry stabilized, studios and distributors changed rapidly.

It has been declared that only 10% of the silent feature films made in the U.S. still exist. Unfortunately, documentaries, shorts and regionals weren't even addressed in the statistics.

Documentation during the silent era is a historians' nightmare. Whether you are preparing material for an auction, cataloguing for an archive, adding to your collection, speculating on a possible piece of historical treasure, or doing film research, you want to be able to find information as quickly as possible.

In 2006, we created the first and only research database for film accessories, the historical documents issued WITH the film. Each movie poster entered had all the information on it fed into the computer. There are currently over 100,000 poster images in the database, sortable from any direction.

To create this book, we started with studio and distributor information and logos that we had compiled from our database. We then factored in trade ads and other information that we had gathered from our research. This allowed us to tackle what was previously considered impossible – the recreating of lost film history.

In this first edition, we present 358 pages and 667 illustrations - thousands of silent era production and distribution companies from around the world with dates, principles, and hundreds of logs and tags.

Best of all – IT'S ONLY $24.95

It is now available with other exclusive reference books in our LAMP Store.
