eMoviePoster.com's Spring 2012 Mini/Major Auction An Unqualified MAJOR Success!

Total dollar sales: $352,398 – Total number of buyers: 532 – Total number of consignors: 110
Total number of consignors who had sales of $10,000 or more: 11

Here's a response from one of the many other consignors who had between $5,000 and $10,000 in sales: "I am really ecstatic with how everything turned out on the 10 items you sold for me during your latest mini/major. It's like you often say. Quality items always do well. You ZOOMED past my goal to get $5,400, BRINGING AN ASTOUNDING TOTAL OF $6823!"

Their next mini/major auction will be held at the end of August. If you are a collector or dealer who has NEVER consigned to eMovieposter in the past, then shouldn't you strongly consider joining the 942 collectors and dealers who have already consigned to them and consider consigning? And it doesn't need to be mini/major material; send one sample consignment and you are likely to quickly become yet another regular consignor! Go to the Consign Page to learn about consigning and what makes emovieposter so different from other competitors!

Here are nine of the top results from all four parts:

INVISIBLE MAN $12,387 (ultra-rare original French release)

FRANKENSTEIN linen 1/2sh R51 $5,850 (great image on this rare poster)

PINOCCHIO set of 4 special posters $4,200 (great special promo, in its original printed envelope)

SAMUEL OWEN GALLERY

PETER TUNNEY

This Memorial Day we salute the positive and uplifting work of Peter Tunney

A few words about a man of many words:

Peter Tunney is truly an artist to experience. When you engage in one of his works, you engage a passionate history that speaks volumes. He is recognized as a prominent artist, social and creative. His mediums are mixed: cutouts, silkscreens, new media, visual nuances and sayings that construct his own framework and a distinguished technique. Resourceful, creative and succeeding, Tunney has been diligently creating his body of works since the 80s - 1987 to be exact. These creations one might say "tweet" back at him. Tunney is more about cherishing the physical mediums vs. the gigs and terabytes that connect us today. The beauty of most Tunney paintings is that they actually convey his appreciation for all those who would come and spend a moment chatting. They are works now that adorn some of the hippest clubs, buildings and restaurants owned by Tunney collectors nationally and internationally who share his vision.

STAR WARS FANS -- BECOME A CHARTER MEMBER OF RANCHO OBI-WAN

Rancho Obi-Wan (ROW) is a non-profit STAR WARS memorabilia museum on the outskirts of wine country in Sonoma County, California, just a 50-minute drive north of San Francisco. It is an eye-popping, wonder-inducing, interactive experience for fans of the saga of all ages and from all over the world. Recently remodeled, its nearly 9,000 square feet of space houses 35 years of STAR WARS treasures from all over the world, from movie-used props to tubes of toothpaste, from hundreds of works of art to thousands of posters, from every action figure and vehicle ever made to fan-created piñatas.

Public support is vital to the mission of Rancho Obi-Wan: to educate and inspire using the collection, the STAR WARS phenomenon, and people connected with or influenced by the saga. You can join Rancho Obi-Wan at one of the various membership levels, visit the collection, make a donation to support its ongoing activities, or rent the museum for events ranging from business meetings to weddings.
