FILM ACCESSORY NEWS

LAMP'S COVID-19 UPDATE

We are happy to report that LAMP, as well as many of its sponsors, are operating normally during this pandemic. Some are conducting business with modifications while others, such as some of our auction houses, have had to cancel/postpone their auctions. Fortunately, not all have had to do this. Here are some updates from our LAMP sponsors. Details follow in this edition of LAMP POST.

- All three parts of eMovieposter.com's April Major Auction are now live. The closing dates are: Part I - April 28; Part II - April 30; Part III - May 3.
- Pastposters.com is offering a 25% discount on everything through April 20th.
- HollywoodPosters.com has added 500 new listings to their great website.
- Heritage Sunday auctions continue. Consignments are being accepted for July Signature Auction.
- French Movie Posters is offering an extremely rare collection of 5 original Planet of the Apes large French posters as well as other popular titles in their ebay shop.
- Film/Art Gallery is continuing to add new items to their inventory, including titles such as Sabrina and Star Wars.
- Illustraction Gallery is finalizing preparations for their Spring Collection with hundreds of new posters.
- Original Poster is still open for business and adding new additions regularly.
- Unshredded Nostalgia is currently offering a great selection of Life and Playboy magazines.
- Partners65 Vintage Movie Posters and Original Movie Stills ebay stores are currently offering a wide selection of movie memorabilia.

Other highlights of this newsletter include Limited Runs' "Top 25 Best Rock Movie Musical Posters," LAMP's "From the Archives" excerpt from April of 2010; and a tribute to the late Mort Drucker.

PLEASE STAY SAFE!

And Don't forget my www.pastposters.com website is still running 25% OFF Everything until the 20th April so do make sure you take advantage of that if you are able. But note I am only Posting out on Mondays and Thursdays though to aid with social distancing.

Happy Browsing
Jamie

We are all well here "in the middle of nowhere" in West Plains, Missouri, where there are only 4 cases of coronavirus reported in our entire country, none serious. We remain open (with a smaller than usual staff) and we continue to work on upcoming auctions, and we are sending 50 to 100 orders every day! Our hearts go out to those collectors and dealers who live in countries or states who have been greatly affected by the virus (either medically or economically), and we urge everyone to do all they can to stay safe until this finally passes.

And as you know, our April Major Auction ends 4/28, 4/30, and 5/3. Here is more on it:

All three parts of eMoviePoster.com's April Major Auction are live (and end 4/28, 4/30, and 5/3)!

Our 2,667 wonderful consignors REALLY came through for us in our April Major Auction, and it has one of our best selections of any Major Auction in YEARS! It contains 1,173 items from all of the world and from every decade, and many different sizes and is being run in three parts:

- Part I (ends Tuesday, April 28th): 302 linenbacked 1-sheets, 3-sheets, and a 7-sheet

- Part II (ends Thursday, April 30th): 340 linenbacked posters (other than the above)

- Part III (ends Sunday, May 3rd): 531 posters, lobby cards, and more that ship in tubes or flat packages

Note that you can also search ALL 1,173 items in our April Major Auction at one time in a single gallery HERE! Once you are at that gallery, you can then quickly see ALL we offer from stars, directors, studios, genres, titles, poster sizes, countries, or decades that interest you!

For example, our April Major Auction contains 72 great horror/sci-fi posters and lobby cards, and you can view just those 72 HERE. Some of the best ones are:

4d0184 BLACK CAT WC 1934 Boris Karloff, Bela Lugosi, Edgar Ulmer Universal horror, incredibly rare!

4d0376 2001: A SPACE ODYSSEY 1sh 1970 most rare & desirable colorful EYE poster, the ultimate trip!

4d0198 MURDERS IN THE RUE MORGUE WC 1932 Grosz art of Bela Lugosi over Sidney Fox, ultra rare!

4b0040 ATTACK OF THE 50 FT WOMAN linen 1sh 1958 classic Brown art of giant Allison Hayes over highway!

4b0001 JAWS linen int'l 7-sheet poster 1975 Steven Spielberg, gigantic c/u art of shark under girl!

4b0093 DRACULA linen 1sh R1960s great different image of Bela Lugosi with victim by web, Tod Browning!

And you can also search the gallery with all 1,172 items in lots of other ways! Using our "Search Filters" (found to the left of the galley), you can search for "Alfred Hitchcock", or "Star Wars", or "1930s", or "Humphrey Bogart", or just about any other way to search you can think of!

Remember that bidding online does not involve any physical contact with anyone. The posters are sent to you wrapped in plastic, and once you unwrap them (if you want, "quarantine" them for a few days first!), you can add safely them to your collection (or display them on your walls) with no fear of catching "something". So why not take your mind off of current events, and view or bid on some great movie posters?

CINEVENT 2020 HAS BEEN CANCELLED

Cinevent 52 will not be held in 2020 due to travel restrictions and to protect the health and safety of the Cinevent staff, guests, and dealers. Here's a letter from Michael Haynes, Chair of Cinevent LLC:

I wanted to give you an update on plans for Cinevent 52, an update which I had hoped would not be necessary but which it has become clear is necessary.

Given the current Coronavirus situation and to protect the health and wellbeing of our attendees, we have made the decision to not hold the convention in 2020. Our current plan is to hold Cinevent 52 in 2021, over Memorial Day weekend.

Separate emails have been sent out to dealers and to those who had registered for the show already with information about logistical concerns. If you have registered for the show for this year or were attending as a dealer and did not receive one of these emails, please let us know.

Rooms reserved at the Renaissance for 2020 as part of our room block will be cancelled by Marriott. I believe this will be done automatically but if you haven't received cancellation confirmation from them in the next week, you might want to follow up with them. Rooms reserved at the hotel outside the room block would need to be cancelled separately.

On the one hand, this was a hard decision to make; on the other, an easy one. Thank you for your support of Cinevent, past and future, and for your understanding. I look forward to welcoming you to Cinevent 52 in May of 2021.

*-Michael Haynes
Chair, Cinevent LLC*

MORT DRUCKER, CARICATURIST AND MOVIE POSTER ARTIST, HAS DIED

Mort Drucker, a longtime contributor to Mad magazine known for his caricatures of actors, politicians and other celebrities, died on Thursday at his home in Woodbury, N.Y. He was 91.

Drucker was born March 22, 1929 in Brooklyn, New York. He displayed a talent for drawing at an early age and attended Saturday morning Pratt Institute art classes.

Drucker landed his first job as an assistant to Bert Whitman, creator of the syndicated newspaper comic strip, Debby Dean, Career Girl. After a six month apprenticeship, he obtained a staff position in late 1947 with National Periodical Publications (DC Comics).

Early in the 1950s, Drucker left DC and began doing full-time freelance work for a number of comic book publishers such as Dell, Atlas and St. John's, as well as several humor and war titles for his former employer.

In the fall of 1956, Drucker began working for Mad Magazine where he worked for 55 years. He has the longest uninterrupted tenure of any Mad artist.

Drucker also has the most bylined articles by any Mad artist who does not also write his own material, with more than 400.

Drucker also pursued assignments in television animation, movie poster art, magazine, book and album cover illustration.

A list of some of his finished movie posters along with some sample images are below.

The Man Who Shot Liberty Valence: Movie Review by Brandy Isadora

While there are many outstanding classic films that have stood the test of time, very few of those films are as renowned as The Treasure of the Sierra Madre. The black and white 1948 movie stars Humphrey Bogart, Tim Holt, and Walter Huston. The movie was commercially successful and received many accolades including the Academy Awards' Best Director for John Huston and Best Supporting Actor for Walter Huston. Walter Huston was the father of John Huston and grandfather of actress, Angelica Huston.

The story is based on B. Traven's novel of the same name. Set in the oil town of Tampico, Mexico in the mid 1920's, two aimless and unemployed men, Fred Dobbs (Bogart) and Tim Curtin (Holt) meet an experienced prospector and former miner named Howard (Huston). One night, Howard tells the two men about the risks of prospecting gold because wealth and power can alter a man's character. Dobbs argues that if a person already has an upstanding character, they won't be vulnerable to the power of gold. After much discussion, the three men decide to pool their resources and set out to seek their fortune in the dangerous mountains of the Sierra Madre.

Though Howard is much older than the other two men, his wisdom and experience set him apart from the group. He easily traverses the mountainside and has energy to spare, while Dobbs and Curtin struggle to keep up the pace. However, it is not until they finally discover gold that the real problems begin to emerge. Even though Dobbs was confident that gold had no power over him, he is the one that succumbs to jealousy and suspicion. No matter how hard the other two men try to show him that they're being honest, Dobbs is unable to let go of his suspicions. The trust and friendship between the men begins to quickly unravel.

Eventually their gold-digging operation draws attention. Howard prefers to use diplomacy, but at this point, Dobbs has little patience for anything but his gold and he resorts to violence. His choices lead to the death of a man named James Cody (performed by Bruce Bennett), who only wanted to join their group so that he could provide for his family.

Though Howard recognizes that Dobb's personality is transforming, he continues to keep the peace within the group. When they decide that they have enough gold, they take down their operation and head back to town. Just when there is peace between the three men, a villager approaches the group for help. Howard, known as a "medicine man", volunteers to help the villager and leaves the group, entrusting Dobbs and Curtin to watch over his share of the gold. Once again, Dobbs succumbs to rage and suspicion because he's certain that Curtin will try to steal Howard's portion of the gold. Within a short amount of time Dobbs' rage is unleashed on Curtin. Suddenly, Curtin's life and the security of the gold is uncertain. Dobbs enemies are plentiful and eventually his karma catches up with him.

The Treasure of the Sierra Madre demonstrates the strengths and weaknesses of human nature. One of the reasons that the movie is so culturally significant is that the story is relatable to all people. The story isn't really about gold because gold is just another symbol for wealth and power, which tends to hold power over people. Humans are capable of greatness and evil. Our lives are long and filled with choices, and we don't know until the end of our lives whether we are truly a good or bad person. The character of Dobbs demonstrates this perfectly.

When Bogart caught wind that Director John Huston was working on this film, Bogart immediately pursued a role in the movie. While the main cast is all men, Bogart, Huston, and Holt brilliantly portray their highly nuanced characters. This is a movie that should be seen by everyone and discussed. It is both timely and timeless. The Treasure of the Sierra Madre is a gritty, exciting, and intense movie that truly is unforgettable.

Greetings All!

We wanted to test a new series to see if it is worthy of becoming a regular monthly article. As we look back over almost 20 years of presenting information to the hobby and publishing almost 200 monthly newsletters, we noticed that there is a tremendous amount of topics and problems that have been discussed. We thought this might be a way for newer collectors to be introduced to some of the history and older collectors to remember back to certain situations.

So, let's get started. For this first issue, I looked back 10 years ago this month (April 2010) and want to present 2 articles.

*First, for newer collectors we want to go back to 2009 when suddenly fake posters for some very expensive Universal horror posters were being found. They started showing up in auctions and private collections and became known as the Universal horror scam which inflicted over $2 million dollars worth of fakes on the market. LAMP tracked, reported and kept the hobby up-to-date on the fakes and how to identify them and then worked with the FBI to help provide their staff with information to secure a conviction. Here is the article on the arrest:

|                                                                                       |  |                    |                                                                                       |

| KERRY HAGGARD ARRESTED ANDCHARGED IN ALLEGED FAKEMOVIE POSTER SCHEME |  |                    |                                                                                       |

After months of investigation, the FBI arrested Kerry Haggard on April 28th in Georgia. According to the Department of Justice Press Release dated April 26, 2010, Haggard was charged with one count of mail fraud relating to his sale of fake vintage horror movie posters and lobby cards which he misrepresented over the Internet and elsewhere to be authentic vintage collectibles. In doing so, the press release asserts, he defrauded his victims of over a million dollars in money and property.

The Complaint filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York lists the charge as follows:

COUNT ONE

From at least in or about January 2006 up to and including in or about August 2009, in the Southern District of New York and elsewhere, KERRY HAGGARD, the defendant, unlawfully, willfully and knowingly having devised a scheme and artifice to defraud, and for obtaining money and property by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises, for the purpose of executing such scheme and artifice, and attempting so to do, did place in post offices and authorized depositories for mail matter, matters and things to be sent and delivered by the Postal Service, and did deposit and cause to be deposited by private and commercial carriers, and did take and receive therefrom such matters and things and did cause to be delivered by mail and such carrier according to the direction thereon, and at the place at which it is directed to be delivered by the person to whom it is addressed, such matter and thing, to wit, HAGGARD engaged in a scheme to defraud using the mails, in which he fraudulently sold, and/or traded in exchange with others, horror movie lobby cards and posters which he falsely represented to be authentic, when HAGGARD knew that they were reproductions.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1341 and 2.)

If convicted, Haggard faces a maximum sentence of 20 years in prison and a maximum fine of $250,000 or twice the gross pecuniary loss or gain derived from the offense on each count.

Haggard was present in Court in Georgia and was released on a $100,000 bond. He first court appearance is scheduled for May 5, 2010 in New York.

This case is being prosecuted by the Office's Complex Frauds Unit. Assistant United States Attorney RYAN P. POSCABLO is in charge of this prosecution.

*For the second article, we wanted to present some good old memories for the older collectors. Long time LAMP Sponsors Terry Pearson from Quadbod was present and presented an article on the first Fan Fest at the London Film Museum presented by major hobby enthusiast Adrian Cowdry. Adrian is sorely missed by our movie poster collecting community.

LONDON MUSEUM FAN FEST

London Museum should be commended for hosting such a great fan event in their London's FanFest 2010 on April 24th and 25th. Over 30 cast members from the James Bond series were in attendance. Also in attendance and set up at the FanFest was our own Terry from Quadbod.

(he must have been over with the James Bond cast members. Anyway, Terry submitted this report:

Adrian Cowdry and his colleagues are to be congratulated on their efforts in launching the first ever Fanfest to be held at The London Film Museum last weekend. Visitors enjoyed a glittering line-up of celebrity signers as well as the chance to browse through the offerings of a number of dealers situated around the fascinating permanent displays of props and movie memorabilia - including Quadbod, located near the Statue Of Liberty and directly beneath Superman's flight-path! On this occasion, the number of attendees was adversely affected by the brilliant weather (now there's a change!) on the Saturday and by the alternative attraction of the London Marathon on Sunday which involved a number of nearby road closures. Nevertheless, all those who attended the show - billed as the ultimate Spy & Sci-Fi event - can now look forward to its success being repeated in similar themed shows in the future.

ART THAT POPS!

THE 2020 WINTER POSTER

COLLECTION IS HERE

You can go straight to the BLOG here

Dear Posterophiles

The good news is that I'm starting the tedious process of finalizing the preparation of the SPRING COLLECTION with hundreds of new posters. The bad news is that it is massive and it will take 2 more weeks to complete!

As we are entering the Easter / Passover period and as we have too much idle time, it's good to revisit some of the long classic movies that are defined as epics (and gathered in the EPIC EPOCH category in the Gallery), most centered around the Bible or linked to Christianity and the fall of ancient Empires (Roman or Egyptian).

In the age of digital moviemaking it is "easy" to show scenes with thousands of computerized soldiers battling in a wide plain. It is also "easy" to recreate old cities and large scale sets on computers.

In the age of Cinemascope, Technicolor and 70mm moviemaking, it was extremely difficult to film thousands of actors fighting similar battles as everything had to be perfectly choreographed. As it was even more difficult to build life sized sets of Ancient Rome, Egypt, Jerusalem and making them look like they were realistic and not made of cheap cardboard.

The success of recent movies/ TV Series like Gladiator, Lord of The Rings, Game Of Thrones and Kingdom (the Korean series I urge you all to watch on Netflix) heavily relied on the fact that the talented directors not only mastered the use of digital moviemaking BUT augmented it with using real life action and hundreds of real actors, making the movies more "believable" than the generic digital only crap that the studios want us to believe is Cinema.

So let's Revisit some of those EPIC movies in THIS WEEK'S BLOG \(click here\) from Ben Hur and Cleopatra to El Cid and The Ten Commandments with splendid posters from all around the world.

Out of the many posters displayed in the Blog, the stunning Polish poster for The Fall Of The Roman Empire by Wiktor Gorka is one of my favorites.

WHAT'S NEW THIS WEEK?

* NEW ITEMS: The 2020 WINTER COLLECTION (now completely out of season but will be replaced in 2 weeks) strong of 800 posters is still available in the NEW PRODUCTS section. Here is a selection of 20 images chosen with confinement in mind.

Among Epic movies, Gone With The Wind reigns supreme at the very Top of the list. Gaze into Vivien Leigh's eyes on the rare Japanese poster printed for the 1966 rerelease.

Nurses are true Wonder Women and the cheering even night is the least we can do (other than demanding our elected officials their salaries are increased). Let's keep on treating them as Princesses in their white outfits. Gorgeous set of two limited edition Princess Leia Star Wars prints by Juan Carlos Ruiz Burgos.

Among all the events we can no longer attend, I personally miss the music concerts the most. Let's go back to an era where Music influenced the creation of magnificent concert posters like the one for Martha And The Vandellas' 1967 shows, part of the legendary Bill Graham Fillmore series.

Confinement French style. Naked outside reading a book as perfectly showcased by Brigitte Bardot in Le Mèpris \(Contempt\). Rare Belgian poster Confinement Blaxploitation style...Cover of the Japanese movie program for Cotton Comes To Harlem.

White men can also look cool too in robes especially Rod Taylor in the 1965 British Eurospy movie The Liquidator. Half sheet poster with Art by Bob Peak.

Along with the large number of fatalities, one of the 'Virus' worst side effects is the huge rise in domestic violence as well as in divorce requests. Nothing to laugh about yet the Italian poster for the Taylor/Burton 1973 TV movie Divorce His Divorce Hers sums it up very well.

Aside domestic violence, Inappropriate behaviors which were common in the 1970's as shown on the British poster for Dirty Weekend \(Mordi e fuggi\) the 1973 Dino Risi directed comedy starring Marcello Mastroianni, must be banned.

All of the above leads to a total rethinking of how married men should behave moving forward. the 1968 comedy A Guide For The Married Man is a must see to learn essential skills as can be appreciated in the colorful 20 page Japanese movie program.

If confinement seems like an eternity it is because it really is! Dr. Strange And Eternity Marvel Third Eye greeting card.

Staying at home too long can transform us into mindless beasts. One of the hardest Kaiju poster to find is undoubtedly the vintage Japanese poster for King Kong Escapes. We are proud to offer it.

Another kind of escape, less simian and much more erotic, is the one that several scantily clad ladies take in the 1980 Italian Women in Prisons / Bad Girl movie, Escape From Hell. Rare Italian export style movie poster.

Since we are living in horrible times, let's embrace the beauty of horror with the gorgeous image created for the Japanese release of Carrie.

We are at war with an invisible enemy. Back in 1940's the enemy was well defined with real operations being the basis of many great WW2 movies such as The Guns Of Navarone. Very rare large French Grande style C poster with Art by Jean Mascii.

Feminine beauty is an eternal cure to most illnesses. The sublime neckline of Monica Vitti is a staple of L'Avventura as shown on the very rare Japanese movie program.

Liv Ullmann and Bibi Andersson offer equally feminine and graceful feelings in Ingmar Bergman's masterful Swedish drama Persona. Rare Japanese press poster.

Feminine curves always with a magnificent painting by Averardo Ciriello for the Italian release of the 1972 erotic Western, Cry For Me Billy.

Another Western yet more virile is Butch Cassidy And The Sundance Kid, allowing Paul Newman and Robert Redford to display their incredible acting skills and charms

Some conspiracy theorists think we are all being framed. Well if this is a frame, I'd rather be confined in a cartoon world with Jessica Rabbit as my personal nurse. Admire the Fantastic brand new Who Framed Roger Rabbit limited edition print by Rockin' Jelly Bean.

Scandinavia is once more the center of all attentions. Norway and Denmark have both flattened their curves in record time while Sweden opted out for a model that may or not prove correct (I hope it will and they are spared). In any case it is a region inviting us to soar to new heights a this vintage early 60's SAS poster shows.
